ALL PEOPLE MUST BE PROTECTED, SAYS WILSON

NO PRIVILEGE TO DOMINATE THIS COUNTRY

Taxes, Living Cost, "Reds" Discussed by the President

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—President Wilson, in his message to Congress recommended:

- Establishment of a national budget system.
- Simplification of income and excess profits taxes.
- Legislation to secure employment and land for service men.
- Means to encourage crop production.

His of America. The provincial standards and policies of the past, which have held American business as a straitjacket, must yield and give way to the needs and exigencies of the new day in which we live, a day of hope and promise for American business, if it will but take advantage of the opportunities that are ours for the asking.

Another and not less important aspect of the problem is the efficiency of the economy and efficiency with which the money appropriated are expended. Under existing law the only audit is for the purpose of ascertaining whether expenditures have been lawfully made within the appropriations. No one is authorized or equipped to ascertain whether the money has been spent wisely, economically or effectively. The auditor should be highly trained officials with permanent tenure in the treasury department, free of obligations to any other department for this or any subsequent administration and authorized and empowered to examine and make report on the methods employed and the results obtained by the executive departments of the government. Their reports should be made to the Congress and to the secretary of the treasury.

TAX SIMPLIFICATION IS CALLED NECESSITY.

I trust that the Congress will give its immediate consideration to the problem of future taxation. Simplification of the income and profits taxes has become an immediate necessity. These taxes performed indispensable service during the war. They must, however, be simplified, not only to save the taxpayer inconvenience and expense, but in order that his liability must be made certain and definite.

With reference to the details of the revenue law, the secretary of the treasury and the commissioner of internal revenue will lay before you for your consideration certain amendments necessary or desirable in connection with the administration of the law—recommendations which have my utmost support. It is of the utmost importance that dealing with this matter the present law should not be disturbed so far as regards taxes for the calendar year 1921, payable in the calendar year 1921.

BUSINESS ACTIVITY SHOULD BE ENCOURAGED.

The Congress might well consider whether the higher rates of income and profits taxes can in any way be effectively productive of revenue and whether they may not, on the contrary, be destructive of business activity and productive of waste and inefficiency. There is a point at which in peace time a high rate of income and profits taxes discourages energy, remove the incentive to new enterprise, encourage extravagance, expenditures and produce industrial stagnation with consequent unemployment and other attendant evils.

The recent war has ended our isolation and shows upon us a great duty and responsibility. The United States must share the expanding world market. The United States desires for itself only equal opportunity with other nations of the world and that through the process of friendly cooperation and fair competition the legitimate interests of the nation concerned may be successfully and equitably adjusted.

RECOGNITION AND RELIEF FOR SOLDIERS.

There are other matters of importance upon which I urge action at the last session of Congress, which are still pressing for solution. I am sure it is not necessary for me again to remind you that there is one immediate and very practicable question resulting from the war which we should meet in the most liberal spirit. It is the matter of the soldier and relief to our soldiers. I can do no better than to quote from my last message regarding this very action.

"The soldier who has sacrificed, returning soldiers are entitled in every practicable way to find the places for which they are fitted in the daily work of the country. This can be accomplished by maintaining upon an adequate scale the admirable organization created by the Department of the Army."

problems. And it should arm the federal government with power to deal in its criminal courts with persons who by violent methods would abrogate our time-tested institutions.

NO LENIENCY FOR CRIME, INSURRECTION.

With the free expression of opinion and with the advocacy of orderly political change, however, the government should be no interference, but toward passion and malice toward to incite crime and insurrection under guise of political evolution there should be no leniency. Legislation to this end has been recommended by the attorney-general and should be enacted. In this direct connection, I would call your attention to my recommendations of August 8, pointing out legislative measures, which would be effective in controlling and bringing down the present cost of living, which contributes so largely to the unrest.

Enactment of Attorney-General Palmer's legislation for dealing with the reds.

Legislation to reduce the cost of living and extension of the Lever act.

Laws to bring about democratization of industry, including participation of workers in decisions affecting their welfare.

Establishment of the principles regarding labor laid down by the League of Nations.

of Labor for placing man seeks a work; and it can also be done at least one great field, by creating new opportunities for individual enterprise. The secretary of the interior has pointed out the way by which returning soldiers might be helped to find and take up land in the hitherto undeveloped regions of the country which the Federal government has already prepared and ready for preparation for cultivation, and also on many of the cut-over or neglected areas, which lie within the limits of the older states; and I once more take the liberty of recommending very urgently that his plans shall receive the immediate and substantial support of the Congress.

MANIPULATION OF FOOD PRICES SHOULD BE CHECKED.

During this period the Congress will have an opportunity to make similar permanent provisions and regulations with regard to all goods destined for interstate commerce and to exclude them from interstate shipment, if the requirements of the law are not complied with. Some such regulation is imperatively necessary. The abuses that have grown up in the manipulation of prices by the withholding of foodstuffs and other necessities of life cannot otherwise be effectively prevented. There can be no doubt of either the necessity or the legitimacy of such measures.

PEACE IN LABOR.

It has served the whole country by leading the way in developing the means of preserving and safeguarding lives and health in dangerous industries. It must be sought in some organic way of finding a method that will bring about a genuine democratization of industry, based upon the full recognition of the right of those who work in whatever rank, to participate in some organic way in every direction which directly affects their welfare. It is with this purpose in mind that I called a conference to meet in Washington on December 1st to consider these problems in all their broad aspects, with the idea of bringing about a better understanding between the two great interests.

WORDS US PUT OWN HOUSE IN ORDER.

The great unrest throughout the world, out of which has emerged a demand for an immediate consideration of the differences between capital and labor, bids us put our own house in order.

Frankly, there can be no permanent and lasting settlement between capital and labor which do not recognize the fundamental concepts for which labor has been struggling through the years. The whole world is now in a state of unrest and adjustment to these fundamental purposes in the League of Nations. The statesmen gathered at Versailles recognized the fact that world stability could not be had by reverting to industrial standards and conditions against which the average workman of the world had revolted. It is therefore the task of the statesmen of the new day of change and adjustment to recognize world conditions and to seek to bring about, through legislation, conditions that will mean the ending of age-long antagonisms between capital and labor and that we hope will lead to the building up of a comradeship which will result not only in great contentment among the mass of workmen, but also bring about a greater production and greater prosperity to business itself.

To analyze the particulars in the demands of labor admit the justice of their complaint in many matters that lie at their basis. The workman demands an adequate wage, sufficient to permit him to live in comfort, unhampered by the fear of poverty and want in his old age. He demands the right to live in a decent home, work amidst sanitary surroundings, both in home and in workshop, surroundings that develop and do not retard his own health and well being; and the right to provide for his children's wants in the matter of health and education. In other words, it is his desire to make the conditions of his life and the lives of those dear to him as comfortable and easy to bear.

SEES INDUSTRIAL PEACE IN LEAGUE.

The establishment of the principles regarding labor laid down in the covenant of the League of Nations offers us the way to industrial peace and conciliation. No other road lies open to us. Not to pursue this one is longer to invite enmities, bitterness and antagonisms which in the end will lead to industrial war and social disaster. The unwilling workman is not a profitable servant. An employee whose industrial life is hedged in by hard and unjust conditions, which he did not create and over which he has no control, lacks that fine spirit of enthusiasm and voluntary effort which are the ingredients of a great producing entity.

BRING TOGETHER TWO GREAT INTERESTS, PLEA

In the matter of international disputes which have led to war, statesmen have sought to set up as a remedy arbitration for war. Does this not point the way for the settlement of industrial disputes by the establishment of a tribunal, fair and just alike to all, which will settle industrial disputes which in the past have led to war and disaster? America, witnessing the evil consequences which have followed out of such disputes between the contending forces, must not admit itself impotent to deal with these matters by means of peaceful processes. Arbitration by some method of bringing together in a council of peace and amity these two great interests, out of which will come a happier day of peace and cooperation. Certainly human intelligence can devise some acceptable tribunal for adjusting the differences between capital and labor.

This is the hour of test and trial for America. By her prowess and strength and the indomitable courage of her soldiers she demonstrated her power to vindicate on foreign battlefields her conception of liberty and justice. Let not her influence as a mediator between capital and labor be weakened and her own failure to settle matters purely domestic concern be proclaimed to the world.

RUSSIA CITED AS PAINFUL LESSON

There are those in this country who threaten direct action to force their will upon a majority. Russia today, under the hand of terror, is a painful object lesson of the power of minorities. It makes little difference what minority it is; whether capital or labor, or any other class; no sort of privilege will ever be permitted to dominate this country. We are a partnership or nothing is worth while. We are a democracy, where the majority are the masters, of all the hopes and purposes of the men who founded this government have been defeated and forgotten. In Russia there is but one way by which great reforms can be accomplished and the relief sought by classes obtained, and that is through the orderly processes of representative government. Those who would propose any other method of reform are enemies of this country. America will not be daunted by threats nor lose her peace of mind by the distressing times. We can afford, in the midst of this day of passion and unrest, to be self-contained and sure. The instrument of all reform is America, so the road of justice to all classes and conditions of men. Men have but to follow this road to realize the full fruition of their objects and desires. Let those who would take the shorter road of disorder and revolution. The right road is the road of justice and orderly process.

Henry H. Haight Dies At Home in Alameda

Henry Haight, local insurance broker, member of a family prominent in California history and for a resident of Alameda, died this morning at his home, 123 Pelton court.

His father, also Henry Haight, was Governor of California from 1887 to 1893. The deceased was a graduate of Yale university in the class of '88 and for years practiced law in San Francisco. He was a member of the Bohemian club.

He leaves a widow, Doris B.; a brother, Louis M., and a sister, Miss Janet C. Haight, prominent in the Elbel club. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon from the home with Rev. Alexander Allen of St. Paul's Episcopal church, officiating. Interment will be in Mountain View cemetery.

LABOR IS ENTITLED TO ADEQUATE WAGE.

Labor is entitled to an adequate wage, but capital should receive a reasonable return upon its investment and is entitled to protection at the hands of the government in every emergency. No government worthy of the name "can play" these elements against each other, for there is a mutuality of interest between them which the government must seek to express and to safeguard at all costs. The right of individuals to strike is inviolate and ought not to be interfered with by any process of government, but there is a predominant right and that is the right of the government to protect all of its people and to assert its power and majority against the challenge of any class. JAPAN WILL ASK U. S. AID IN FIGHT ON BOLSHEVISM

TOKYO, Friday, Nov. 28.—(By the Associated Press.)—The eastward march of Bolshevik forces in Siberia has developed a suddenly serious problem for Japan which is gravely occupying official circles and which probably will be discussed soon with the American government.

The convention by which the allies have operated in Eastern Siberia may be menaced by the Bolsheviks, and the interests of law and order in China, Manchuria and the Russian Pacific littoral may make necessary a military campaign on a large scale. Japan apparently has no wish to attack the problem single-handed, and the impression prevails she will discuss every step with the American government and may request moral, financial and even military support.

Although some newspapers continue to talk about misunderstanding between Japan and America, the impression is steadily growing here that the people who are actually conducting the affairs of the empire will seek not only to cement the friendship between the two countries, but to co-operate with America in the widest sense in the solution of all Far Eastern problems. For the moment the greatest problem is Bolshevism. The first public note sounded for the necessity of a common defense against the Bolsheviks was struck by Viscount Ishii, former ambassador to the United States, at the American-Japan dinner given by the Japan Society on November 19.

"All petty and selfish considerations of a race and economic character should be merged into the vaster consideration of this common defense."

Elaborate preparations have been made to welcome Admiral Albert Gleaves, commander of the United States Asiatic Fleet, who will arrive here on board the cruiser South Dakota, December 4. Numerous official dinners and receptions have been planned.

Says Husband Failed To Appreciate Turkey

William Smith, proprietor of an automobile drayage concern and in receipt of a divorce, of an income of $300 a month, showed no appreciation of the nice Thanksgiving dinner his wife prepared, said her daughter by a former marriage was in the way, complained of the latter's table manners and did not introduce his wife to his father when he met the latter, telling her he was afraid to introduce her as his father might become shocked, according to the divorce complaint of Mrs. Josephine S. Smith.

Mrs. Smith says the community property consists of money in the bank, the amount of which she does not know, and personal property valued at $1500. She is asking a restraining order preventing him from disposing of the funds or other property and $75 a month alimony. They were married January 3, 1917. Mrs. Smith is living in Sacramento county where the suit originally was filed. Smith, who lives here, has secured a change of venue to Alameda county.

KILLS 674 TROOPS TO AVENGE ANGELES.

EL PASO, Texas, Dec. 2.—Six hundred and seventy-four lives of Federal soldiers are said to have been exacted by Francisco Villa for the death of General Felipe Angeles just twenty-four hours after the latter's execution at Chihuahua City, on November 27. Villa's men, 1000 strong, fell upon the 80th Federal regiment at Rancho Espejo with knives, and using the butts of their guns as clubs. Only two officers escaped.

The story was brought here yesterday by Dr. L. M. Gomez of this city, telling me that a former army aviator, who had gone to Chihuahua City in an effort to save Angeles' life. He learned the story from the two officers who escaped. Colonel Rivas and Lieutenant Colonel Marroqui, as they related it to a mutual friend in Santa Rosalia.

Threats of Villa to seek revenge for the death of Angeles were known to Federal authorities below the border, but the surprise of the 80th regiment was complete. At 6 o'clock in the morning the rebels began the massacre.

Little ammunition was wasted. They worked fast with knife and revolver, and who said to have the Federals could realize what had happened.

The others were clubbed to death, slashed with knives, or shot down as they ran. Of the 674 men in the regiment only the two officers are known to have escaped. General Santa Sanchez, in command of the Federals and who is said to have boasted he could "get" Villa inside of two months, is missing and believed killed.

STORY IS CREDITED DESPITE DENIALS

The story of the slaughter is credited along the border today, despite official denials.

Vice-Consul Alberto Sandoval of the Mexican consulate in El Paso, after talking with the Mexican telegraph office this morning, emphatically expressed his belief in the reported massacre.

Dr. L. G. Gomez of Los Angeles, another Chihuahua City arrival here, J. B. Herex, agent of a New York importing concern, details heart-rending scenes of mourning on the part of wives and relatives of the murdered Carranzistas.

Dr. Gomez said that Villa, far from being "down and out," as generally believed along the border, is credited in Northern Mexico with having 5000 strongly armed followers. Herex heard rumors that Villa was planning to launch a new campaign of which the Rancho Espejo massacre north of Santa Rosalia was the beginning.

Red Cross Christmas Seals? Have you bought them?

If you have you have helped some man or woman, boy or girl fight against the white plague that has put its hand upon him. Alameda county is the only county in California where tuberculosis is not on the increase. It is being stamped out because holiday shoppers are buying the tiny, gay stickers with their Kirs Kringles, and their holly wreaths, to put on Christmas letters and packages and the season's gifts. Everybody buys stickers. It saves ribbon. Why not help save a life by buying the penny sticker which the Alameda County Society for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis is offering in a ten days' pre-Christmas drive to raise $10,000 to be devoted entirely to the eradication of the disease.

With the new year there is to be opened a children's department at Arroyo Sanitarium to take care of the little ones who are growing up under the shadow of the white plague. With proper attention the disease can be checked and a cure effected. The anti-tuberculosis society has the supervision of the contracts to the Livermore institution. Long waiting lists of applicants necessitate a large amount of personal work in individual cases. Five applicants were received yesterday from those who desire admission to the county institution but whose names must go at the end of the lists. In the meantime physicians and nurses will give them examinations and directions to hold the disease in check.

The Red Cross Christmas Seal will help directly.

Demands Made for Report From School Secretary About "Irregularities"

Demand for a written report from Secretary Lloyd D. Barzee on the long list of charges made at a recent meeting by President Floyd Gray, involving alleged irregularities in the handling of school affairs, was made before the school board last night by Director Fred A. Campbell.

"If there is any truth in President Gray's charges I want to know it," said Campbell, after asking what disposition had been made of the charges and being told that Secretary Barzee had given a verbal report to a recent meeting of the committee of the whole at which Campbell was not present, "and if there isn't any truth in them I want to know it. I would like a written report to this board."

Barzee was instructed to conclude his investigation into the charges and prepare a written report, which will be submitted at the meeting of the board next Monday night.

The chief charges brought by Gray at the meeting at which the board members pledged themselves to abstain from petty bickering at meetings, were that certain employees had been paid overtime in violation of the rules of the school board and the civil service board, that certain employees working on a per diem basis had been paid during 15-day vacation periods and that school property had been used for personal gain.

As an aftermath of the discovery that some board employees had been drawing heavy overtime pay, the board last night decided that hereafter any cases requiring extra pay shall be discussed before the board before payment is arranged, and that the payment of overtime shall be avoided as far as possible by granting days off to make up for the extra work. The case was brought before the board by the necessity for having extra work done by school carpenters because of the damage caused by the recent heavy winds.

ASKS SUPPORT OF NAVY MAN FOR CHILDREN

Disclosing details of her love for Commander Mark St. Clair Ellis, U. S. N., which led her to desert her husband, Henry Diercks, one-time owner of several San Francisco cafes, to live with the navy man in Vallejo, Mrs. Ellen Diercks, formerly Berkeley girl, now living in San Diego, has brought suit against Commander Ellis for the support of her children. She alleges that Ellis is the father of them.

The action is filed in a federal court at Los Angeles. Her action tells how she was born in Berkeley twenty-five years ago and there raised in a convent. She was married at the age of fifteen to Henry Diercks, who was at that time owner of the Palm Garden Cafe of Vallejo and the Louvre Cafe in San Francisco.

She says her husband owned property in Vallejo and that a residence property was rented by Commander Ellis while he lived at Mare Island. In collecting rent for her husband, she says she first met Commander Ellis.

An intimacy is disclosed in the telling, but before the birth of her first son, Eddie, whom she refers to in the complaint as "Patric Ellis" has been discovered by her duplicity.

Diercks intended to divorce her, naming Ellis and suing him for $50,000 for alienation of affection but she prevailed on him to allow her to bring suit on account of Ellis' wife who was an invalid.

Diercks went to Ellis shortly, she says, and exacted from him a promise that the latter would "take care of her," getting a divorce from his own wife and eventually marrying Mrs. Diercks. To this arrangement Ellis is said to have agreed.

Mrs. Diercks was divorced by her husband but then she, says Ellis, refused to divorce his invalid wife saying that it would kill her.

During this time, Mrs. Diercks says, Commander Ellis maintained an apartment for her in Vallejo in addition to his wife's home. It was agreed that they were to be married on Mrs. Ellis' death.

WIFE LEAVES WILL.

Although Mrs. Ellis never spoke to her husband about it, to Mrs. Diercks' knowledge, it is taken as understood that she knew of this alleged duplicity for when she died in January, 1918, it developed that Ellis had been cut off in her will from the $35,000 worth of property that she owned.

Mrs. Diercks then expected him to marry and legitimize their three children, Eddie, Mary and Rosie, the last two being three years, 5 months and one year and 7 months, respectively.

He kept putting her off until May, she says, when he told her to know, he married Mrs. Helen Allen Rood of Seattle, wealthy widow of a Seattle lumber king, who was a victim of the Titanic. His recent bride is the owner of the Washington Hotel and the Moore Theater of Seattle and maintains homes in Paris and Denver.

Until his recent marriage he had provided for the children but has since refused to do so, she charges. She says she has been reduced to extreme poverty and her struggle to support herself has become so hopeless that she was forced to the courts for aid.

U. S. AVIATOR IN LEMBERG KILLED

LEMBERG, Saturday, Nov. 22.—(By The Associated Press)—Lieutenant Edmund P. Graves of Boston, Mass., a member of the Kosciusko aerial squadron of the Polish army, was killed today when his airplane crashed on the roof of the palace of Count Potocki, which is occupied by the personnel of the American Red Cross.

Gasoline escaping from the machine ignited and started a fire which nearly consumed the building. Lieutenant Graves, who was a Harvard graduate of 1912, was the first member of the Kosciusko squadron, which is made up of American volunteers, to lose his life.

Neighborhood Gossip Results in Divorce

Neighborhood gossip started all the trouble between him and his wife, says Ferdinand Queyrel in a cross-complaint to the divorce suit of Clara L. Queyrel, in which the husband expresses the hope that the trial will prove that he has not been untrue to his wife and that she will agree to a reconciliation for the sake of the children.

Queyrel denies his wife's charges of cruelty, but admits that he refused to get his meals, swept up his clothes with the dirt and acted sullen towards him. Queyrel says he never accused his wife of infidelity, but on the contrary, believes that she has always been true to him. Other divorces filed were: Josephine S. vs. William Smith, cruelty; Clara vs. Walter Gimm, cruelty.

RECEIPTS FOR YEAR BOASTED HALF BILLION

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—Increase of nearly a half-billion dollars in receipts over 1918 was noted in the report today of the treasurer of the United States for the fiscal year 1919. The ordinary receipts were $1,671,602,822.46, and the ordinary disbursements $15,365,862,741.76, an increase of $6,308,530,474.73, as compared with those of the year previous. The disbursements on account of the Panama canal were $12,260,775.09, while the receipts were $6,777,048.55.

The ordinary stock of money in the United States at the close of the fiscal year was $7,518,799,000, an increase of $777,116,706. The money in circulation increased in 1919 to $15,602,148,148, as compared with a grand total of $15,766,029,973.

NOLAN ON WAY TO CONCILIATE SHIPSTRIKERS

Three events will make the shipyard situation in the next two days. The first will be the arrival of Congressman John I. Nolan, member of the executive committee of the International Molders' Union, who was wired last week to supply data desired by the Bay Cities Metal Trades Council. Nolan will reach the bay tomorrow evening.

The second will be the expiration tomorrow night of the period allowed by the shipyard operators before inviting outside workers to seek employment at bay yards. The third will be the parade Thursday of workers remaining on strike.

Nolan was asked to give information regarding the cost of operating shipyards and the profits made by shipbuilding corporations of the bay. Instead of sending the data he wired that he would come to the coast at once.

Reports are current that Nolan will make an effort to re-open negotiations with the California Metal Trades Association. The association asserts that it will consider no further negotiations; that there are now 9754 men at work in the bay yards. In addition to 2000 at the Hanlon yards, which received men separately, and the present "open shop" policy will continue.

Among labor leaders there was expressed a confidence that the California Foundrymen's Association would consent to re-open negotiations with the Molders' Union.

TACOMA, Wash., Dec. 2.—Representative of the shipyard owners and employees reached an agreement here yesterday and signed their names to a basic statement of the conditions under which the Tacoma steel shipyard should be reopened. What the conditions outlined in the agreement are, neither the conference nor E. P. Marsh, Federal mediator, would say last night as the agreement now goes to the Metal Trades Council and the Todd Drydock and Construction Corporation for official endorsement.

President C. W. Wiley and J. A. Eves, vice-president and general manager of the Todd plant, were members of the conference committee, and the metal trades was also represented. Officials on both sides last night believed that the result of the conference would be supported officially by both sides.

The only question, apparently, was whether the special meeting of the Metal Trades Council called for last night would ratify the conference agreement or vote to pass it back for a referendum. Tonight's meeting is expected to last until a late hour and it is considered likely that the outcome will not be available until tomorrow.

UNION HEADS NOT ALLOWED TO LAND

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—C. Howard Severs and Anthony Stair, representatives of the American Federation of Labor, who called a few weeks ago for Cristobal to hear the grievances of 9000 organized canal zone workers, returned here yesterday aboard the steamship Tivies, asserting that Governor Chester Harding, without giving them any explanation, had refused them permission to land.

Severs, who is assistant to the president of the United Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employees and International Brotherhood of Railroad Workers, and Stair, general organizer of the brotherhood, said permission to land at Limon also had been refused them by provisional President Francisco Aguilar Barquero of Costa Rica.

The two labor men said they could assign no reason for the action of Governor Harding and President Barquero, for in addition to passports signed by Secretary of State Lansing, they carried credentials from Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor; Senator E. C. Rouse, Representative Hutchinson of New Jersey, immigration officials here found their papers correct and permitted them to land yesterday.

"I presume that a strong feeling resulted from the fact that I organized the negroes in the zone who had never been organized before," said Severs, who added that at Cristobal "uniformed members of the local military police were stationed on the deck to prevent us from landing."

Oakland Elks Plan Memorial Services

In keeping with a time-honored custom the local lodge of Elks will celebrate its annual memorial service next Sunday at 2:15 o'clock at their home in Fourteenth street. A musical program has been arranged which will excel any previous effort and the committee has invited Alexander Sheriffs, past master of the San Jose Lodge, to deliver the oration. These services are held at the same time throughout the United States and were first held in 1882. This will be Oakland's twenty-seventh anniversary.

STORM WILL CONTINUE, IS PREDICTION

Throughout the state and most of the coast the storm starting last Saturday continued today with the same but persistent precipitation. In twenty-four hours but a tenth of an inch of rain fell in this city up to 8 o'clock this morning, but there was no period in that time when rain was not falling or threatened.

RAIN FALLS HEAVY

Valley precipitations are still light with a little more than a trace at Fresno and about the same at Sacramento as here. Coast points north and south have received a heavier fall than the interior, ranging from about six-tenths of an inch at Eureka to close to an inch at Paso Robles.

The district forecaster declares there is no change in conditions in sight. He expects more rain tomorrow with a cooling of the light southerly winds. State precipitations for the twenty-four hours ending this morning were as follows: Oakland .11; Colusa .15; Lindsay .02; Orland .04; Oroville .22; Paso Robles .94; Rocklin .07; Santa Barbara .04; Santa Rosa .40; Eureka .64; Fresno .06; Hanford .45; Pt. Francisco .34; Sacramento .12; San Francisco .10; San Jose .40; Stockton .10.

BLACK LIST IS PUBLISHED BY U. C. JUNIORS

BERKELEY, Dec. 2.—The names of fifty-two men and twenty-eight women, all members of the junior class, were published today in the "Daily Californian" in the first "black list" ever made public on the University of California campus.

Non-payment of a junior assessment of $5 for defraying expenses of the publication of the annual edition of the "Blue and Gold," issued by members of the third-year class on the campus, brought forth the list from Charles Cobb, manager of the Blue and Gold.

Considerable feeling has been stirred up on the campus as a result of the "black list." The list, it is declared, contains the names of many students at present working their way through college, on whom the payment of six dollars would come as a hardship. On the other hand, the list contains the names of both men and women students prominent in affairs at the university.

Packers' Employees Call Wage Meeting

CHICAGO, Dec. 2.—Refusing to take responsibility of accepting the increased wage award announced yesterday by Federal Judge Samuel Alschuler, a call for an outdoor mass meeting Sunday was promulgated today by the Stock Yards Labor Council. The decision by Judge Alschuler granted wage increases affecting 125,000 stock yard workers. At the council meeting last night when it was voted to table the award pending an expression of sentiment from workers in the other cities the union men asserted the increase, which approximated 1 1/2 per cent, should have been from 20 to 50 per cent instead.

WOMAN GIVES NEWEST CLEW IN ROBBERY

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 2.—A woman, said to be a beautiful widow who moves in smart society circles, entered the daring Hellman bank robbery case here today as the newest clew which may lead to the arrest of the bandits who yesterday held up and robbed that institution of cash and bonds aggregating about $25,000. The woman is under surveillance. Through her detectives hope to locate the criminals.

According to the latest information available to the detectives, the widow is a consort of one of the bank bandits. She was heard to say that her companion, who posed as a wealthy promoter, was about to complete "a big deal."

The bandits drove up to the Hellman Commercial Trust and Savings bank branch at Union Square yesterday and, herding the employees into a room, looted the vault and cash tills and fled. They escaped with $16,710 in cash and several thousand dollars in bonds and negotiable securities.

PREFERS JAIL TO RAIN. Choice between a wet abode with the sky as a ceiling or a bunk in the city prison was given John G. Belmont early this morning. Belmont chose the latter and was locked up on a charge preferred under the sleeping out ordinance.

SEC. LANE HONORS DR. ELWOOD MEAD

BERKELEY, Dec. 2.—Secretary of the Interior Franklin K. Lane has invited Dr. Elwood Mead, professor of rural institutions in the University of California, to act as one of a Council of National Progress, the purpose of this council being to make a study of policies and plans which should be followed in national development. Other persons invited to become members of this council are: Hon. Louis D. Brandeis, Cyrus H. McCormick, George C. Crawford and Theodore Vail.

PHILADELPHIA OUSTS FORMER S. F. REFORMER

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 2.—The Rev. Paul Smith, who led a campaign against the San Francisco tenderloin in 1917, has fled Philadelphia under a rain of criticism from both clergy and press, according to word received here last night. His trouble grows out of an attempt to introduce religious motion pictures into Sunday church services.

Charges Home Looted By Former Associate

Complaint was made to the police inspectors today by John Richardson, 3154 Fruitvale avenue, that a former associate in a business deal had called at his home and looted the place while he was absent. According to Richardson the man, whose name was furnished the police, was admitted by Richardson's daughter. On leaving he took with him a picture valued at $150, it is alleged.

Beauty of Grecian Dancers Brought Out in Interpretations By Duncan Girls.

By ROY HARRISON DANFORTH
Leaping straight from the freeze of the Parthenon—or was it the Louvre's Victory bending—a lass come mad on jovous feet darted from the folds of a towering, strange-hued curtain at the Auditorium last evening and introduced us to the art of Isadora Duncan. That art is not really Mrs. Duncan's, but the expression of Greece recreated the echo of Dionysus for ages it is moulder in dust, she has raised the dust to a new meaning. Her agents are these six girls the Duncan dancers, who stand at once as a protest and a promise a protest against the ugliness of too many modern things, a promise of escape therefrom. None with a soul in which there still was a remnant of longing could have sat before their dancing last evening, or listened to the plucking of George Copeland's harp without whispering an amen to both the protest and the promise.

Perhaps of all the characteristics that impress one as vital to this spectacle the greatest is cleanliness. They permit something of the primitive joy in naked flesh which must have been among the happiest possessions of the Greeks. The frank honesty of their white legs and arms and throats and breasts and faces is like honesty in the glance that follows them. They make their audience ashamed of shame, ashamed of a degenerate moral code that has place for shame. Oh, you and I have seen their antithesis the smirk above a grotesque corsage, an ankle whose practiced sauciness is its intended invitation, the modesty that gives the lie to nude-ville exposures. But here up to itself is purity, purity truth, those long disassembled virtues they have fused anew.

Christmas Shopping Should Begin at Once

In addition to the old reasons that assortments are larger and goods fresher, that shopping is more comfortable because not so hurried or crowded, and that service all along the line is bound to be better, there is this reason this year—

Parcel Post, Mail and Express Are Sure to Be Overcrowded and Slow

Already this is the experience in mailing or expressing packages—they often arrive late.

Now what will be conditions later when the big rush is on?

Postoffice and express authorities ask that Christmas packages be sent early, and it is to the interest of everybody to comply with the request.

"Don't Open Until Christmas" Tags can be put on the packages when sent.

We are aiding early shopping by bringing out Christmas goods in abundance. Selections made now will be held by us until desired.

PRISONERS ARE IGNORED

PARIS, Dec. 2.—A letter from Baron von Lersner, president of the German peace delegation to M. Clemenceau president of the conference and M. Clemenceau's reply, have been made public.

Baron von Lersner writing on Friday an alleged official statement of August 24 to the effect that the allied and associated powers had decided to ignore the date of the ratification of the treaty in dealing with German prisoners—the repatriation of whom was refused.

Von Lersner defends Germany's accomplishment of her obligations. He says Germany made concessions in the case of the killing of Sergeant Mannheim and in the matter of the delivery of coal to persons of promised favorable treatment on the question of prisoners. He accuses France of making improper prisoners pay for pretended discrepancies on the part of the German government and declares that the laws of war were applied to prisoners with pitiless severity. He argues that Germany has not refused to fulfill her obligations but has been put out of the difficulty of doing so.

Von Lersner does not take up the matter of the killing of the German warships in Scapa Flow. M. Clemenceau's reply has been better than a series of statements whose tone cannot mask their inaccuracy.

He declares that the statement that France on August 24 offered other men in return for the murder of Mannheim or the delivery of coal promised the repatriation of prisoners is absolutely without foundation.

The German government, according to M. Clemenceau is using the prisoner question to excite German opinion against the allies especially France. He accuses Germany of making improper prisoners pay for pretended discrepancies on the part of the German government and declares that the laws of war were applied to prisoners with pitiless severity. He argues that Germany has not refused to fulfill her obligations but has been put out of the difficulty of doing so.

Victor output reaches normal

The shortage in Victrolas will soon be relieved

Plans for expanding the plant to meet the tremendous increase in demand have been fully matured and are under way—astonishing increases are assured within the next few months.

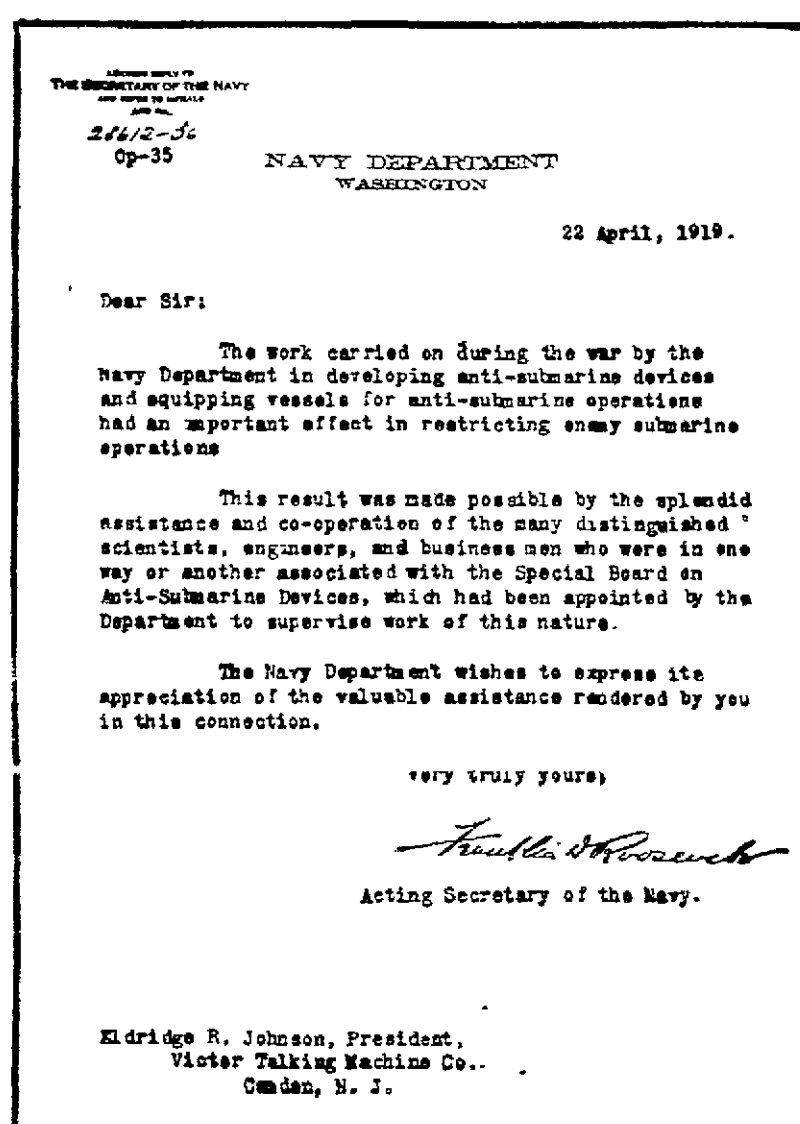

The value of the Victor Talking Machine Company's output for October was the greatest in its history. The unprecedented shortage of Victrolas will therefore soon be relieved.

During the war practically 90% of the $36,000,000 Victor investment was devoted to war work. This was responsible for the almost total disappearance of Victrolas from the market.

The armistice was signed in November, 1918, but it was not until March, 1919, that the Victor Company could clear its plant of war orders. And as it requires at least four months to manufacture Victrolas in the way the Victor Company manufactures them and in the way they should be manufactured, the rapidity of our recovery to normal output will be appreciated by all who know about manufacturing.

The Victor Company is the only talking machine company in the United States which has a complete plant for the manufacture of complete talking machines. All others are operated more or less by a system of contract construction—the fabricating system.

Years ago the Victor Company found it necessary to erect a large plant of its own in order to maintain its own standard of quality—VICTOR QUALITY.

As this plant happened to be exactly what the Government required to produce bombing hydro-aeroplanes and other submarine detecting devices, the Victor plant was chosen for the place of honor and sacrifice, while our less fortunate or less competent competitors were ignored and allowed to continue.

This is the true story, the cause of the shortage in Victrolas, which our competitors have not been slow to take advantage of.

Many of our exclusive dealers stood by their convictions, while some have not and have put in competing lines which in many instances are inferior. This was their privilege, but we wish to point out that the advertisements which are appearing announcing several lines of "standard" talking machines are misleading.

There can never be several standards. The shortage of Victrolas and the lure of greater profits has induced the endorsement of inferior goods.

The Victor Company is the original manufacturer of the Victrola and holds all the original patents. In the last twenty-three years the Victor Company has originated all the startling improvements in the type of talking machine which it manufactures. Other manufacturers have simply followed, manufacturing instruments which are largely imitative.

The Victor Company is the only company in the United States fully equipped to make standard talking machines of the gramophone type—the Victrola is a gramophone not a phonograph.

There is only one standard talking machine and that is the VICTROLA.

There can be but one standard in any line, and the Victor Company produces the standard in talking machines.

NOTE—By reason of the above circumstances it is important that prospective customers visit a store where Victor goods are given fair presentation.

THOUSANDS HAVE KIDNEY TROUBLE AND NEVER SUSPECT IT

Applicants for Insurance Often Rejected

Judging from reports from druggists who are constantly in direct touch with the public, there is one preparation that has been very successful in overcoming these ailments. The mild and healing influence of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its remarkable record of cures.

An examining physician for one of the prominent life insurance companies, in an interview of the subject, made the astonishing statement that one reason why so many applicants for insurance are rejected is because kidney trouble is so common to the American people, and the large majority of those whose applications are declined do not even suspect that they have the disease. It is on sale at all drug stores in bottles of two sizes, medium and large.

How, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure you mention the Oakland Daily Tribune.—Advertisement—

WOMAN SLAYER DEFENDS ACT NEWS OF THE STATE L. A. LEADERS LISTED AS REDS

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 2.—Mrs. F. A. Thurston, who shot and killed Jean Kimball, cashier of the Palace hotel, in San Francisco, Nov. 4, appeared as the chief witness for the prosecution in the case of her husband, Fred A. Thurston, who was given a preliminary hearing here today on a charge of failure to provide for his wife and child.

The complaint in the non-support case was sworn to by Mrs. A. D. Archer of this city, in whose care Mrs. Thurston left her baby. Mrs. Thurston declared in court today that she was not sorry she killed the Kimball, charged that the younger woman had alienated the affections of her husband and "taken away her only chance of happiness."

Thurston showed no sympathy for his wife.

PROMINENT PERSONS ON RED LITERATURE

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 2.—According to the statement yesterday of one of the operatives of the intelligence department of the American Legion here, who, with the police Sunday night, seized more than a thousand pounds of radical literature in a raid on I. W. W. headquarters at 149 S. Main street, the public in Southern California is due for an "astounding awakening" when it finds that wealth and culture here, as evidenced by exhibits in the raid, are revealed.

The legion leader asserts that evidence which will be turned over to the district attorney will show that these persons of wealth and social position not only have given large sums for more radical ideas in California, but that further, their names are attached to letters seized.

YUBA PEACH HARVEST VALUED AT $2,000,000.

YUBA CITY, Dec. 2.—One of the "feature announcements" made at the exhibit of canned fruit in Bogue Hall here is the assertion that the peach harvest of this vicinity for the year 1919 is more than $2,000,000 in value, it was said by Farm Adviser C. E. Sullivan of Sutter county today.

The purpose of the exhibit of canned fruit is to create closer co-operation between grower and cannery men, it was said. It is desired that the growers become familiar with the condition in which certain varieties of fruit will become after canning.

The growers will hear an address from J. E. Bergholm, newly elected president of the State Fruit Growers' association. Discussion of various types of sprays, spray rods and other machinery used by fruit growers will be part of the program.

RICE CROP IS SOLD FOR NEARLY $45,000.

OAKDALE, Dec. 2.—Rice men in the Oakdale district are having a real harvest year, the yield running from thirty-five to forty sacks to the acre. Some of the local growers will become independent as a result of their success the past season, and are planning to double acreage next year.

It is probable that twice the amount of rice will be grown in the Oakdale district next year as was seeded this season. W. P. Cook sold his crop in week for $5.50 per hundred. He had 170 acres in the Paulsell section from which he harvested 7000 sacks of rice weighing over 100 pounds the sacks. Three years ago rice growers were forced to feed their rice to the hogs because they could not get an offer of more than $1.70 per hundred, which was less than the cost of barley or other hog feed. All the rice men will increase their acreage and install pumps next season.

GOLD IS FOUND CLOSE TO SURFACE ON RANCH

GRASS VALLEY, Dec. 2.—"Jewelry shop" gold quartz is being taken from the top of a recently discovered on the Mulcahy ranch, near Newtown, within a few feet of the surface, where farming operations have been carried on for the last fifty years.

This strike is regarded as probably the most important made in this section for several years. The ledge is from six to seven feet in thickness and the surface and carries free gold.

The Mulcahy ranch has been banded by mining men and the discovery is being further investigated.

GRAPEFRUIT AND LEMON CROSSED FOR NEW FRUIT

PERENCO, Dec. 2.—A "baby lemon," cross between a lemon and a grapefruit and twenty-two inches in circumference, is now on display at the Fresno County Chamber of Commerce. The fruit weighs between three and four pounds and is said to combine the best qualities of both fruits and to have a distinct flavor. The specimen came from the Orangeland farm lands.

WOMAN IS APPOINTED TO G. O. P. COMMITTEE

NEVADA CITY, Dec. 2.—The Republican county central committee has recommended the appointment of Mrs. M. M. McNeil of Grass Valley as member from this county on the Women's State Republican Committee. Mrs. McNeil is the wife of a Grass Valley business man.

At the meeting of the county committee, the first for one and a half years, the Johnson sentiment was nearly unanimous.

SAN JOAQUIN MAYORS WILL TALK FINANCE

BAKERSFIELD, Dec. 2.—A call for a conference of San Joaquin Valley mayors to meet in Bakersfield Thursday, December 11, to consider problems of finance and revenue was prepared here yesterday.

The call will be signed by Mayor Jay A. Hinman of Bakersfield.

Meteor is Reported Falling Into Bay

That a meteor, emitting fire as it descended, fell into San Pablo bay at the Sobrante duck preserve last Wednesday morning at about 9:30 o'clock, was the assertion made today by Ami Pellaton of 24 East Sixteenth street, Pellaton, who was accompanied by Harold Lambert, also of Oakland, says that the meteor, which appeared to be about two feet in diameter, fell into the water within fifteen feet of a duck "blind" in which he and his companion were hidden. He said that he noticed the falling object long before it struck the water.

Mayor W. F. Toomey of Fresno and Mayor Isaac Clark of Visalia. Mayor Hinman said he expected at least fifty mayors would attend the conference.

COTTON MILL PLANNED FOR TULARE DISTRICT

TULARE, Dec. 2.—Increase in the prospective acreage to be devoted to the production of Egyptian cotton in the Tulare district next season has given impetus to the plans for establishment of a gin and a cotton seed mill here. Officials of the Board of Trade are in correspondence with cotton mill manufacturers and say that Imperial Valley manufacturers have been sufficiently impressed with the possibilities that they have been here on a tour of inspection.

ENGINEER APPROVES FALL RIVER PROJECT

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 2.—State Engineer W. F. McClure announced today that he has investigated and will report favorably on the irrigation project of the Fall River valley district in Shasta county, where it is proposed to water 16,000 acres. The water supply from Fall river is ample, McClure said.

MRS. T. T. SMITH GAINS 30 POUNDS

After Taking Tanlac Feels Better
Than in Fifteen Years.

"I can certainly recommend Tanlac for it was six months ago that it entirely overcame all my fifteen years of troubles and today I am feeling better than I have in fifteen years and have actually gained thirty pounds in weight. Why, it seems almost too good to be true. I was in an awful condition with no appetite to speak of and indigestion gave me so much trouble that I was really afraid to eat anything. For three or four days I would be troubled with gas and pain in my stomach. The pains were so bad I could hardly bear for my clothing to touch me and at night I had to get up and drink hot water or eat a cracker before I could get relief and go to sleep. I lost so much sleep that I began to fall off in weight and I was really discouraged. I did I would be troubled with gas and pain in my stomach. The pains were so bad I could hardly bear for my clothing to touch me and at night I had to get up and drink hot water or eat a cracker before I could get relief and go to sleep. Have a Good Appetite

By Taking Vinol

It increases the appetite, aids digestion, transforms food into red blood corpuscles, muscular tissue, brain and nerve force, thus replacing weakness, nervousness and lassitude with strength and vigor.

Proof That There is Nothing Like Vinol
Scranton, Pa.—"I used Vinol for general weakness, poor appetite and loss of strength and flesh. At times I was simply too weak to work. Within ten days after taking Vinol I could see an improvement. It gave me a splendid appetite, I have gained in flesh and feel stronger in every way."
—Mrs. L. A. MEARS.

For all run-down, nervous, anemic conditions, weak women, overworked men, feeble old people and delicate children, there is no remedy like Vinol. Your money will be returned if Vinol fails—

The Claremont club in Hillcrest road will be the scene of a dancing party this evening, one of the interesting social affairs appropos of the holiday season. While this evening dancing will be the principal diversion, on the 15th of the month a concert is planned under the direction of Mrs. A. E. Sykes.

Lady Astor's Appearance In Commons Causes One Speaker to Amend Remarks

LONDON, Dec. 2.—(By the Associated Press.)—An American-born lady, the first of her sex to have the honor, yesterday attained full membership in the British house of commons and at the evening session cast her initial ballot on a question before the house.

The woman is Lady Astor, wife of Viscount Astor, who was Nancy Langhorne, a famous beauty from the state of Virginia, she was chosen by the people of Plymouth to be the guest of her husband, Viscount Astor, who recently rose to the rank of a viscount through the death of his father, William Waldorf Astor.

David Lloyd George, prime minister, and Arthur J. Balfour, lord president of the council, had the honor of acting as her sponsors. Arrived in black and wearing her hat, Lady Astor stood the roll of the house with the name "Nancy Astor." She was greeted with enthusiastic applause as she approached the speaker's stand to be inducted into office and again after she had become a full-fledged member of parliament.

GREETED WITH "HEAR, HEAR!"
When, after the routine of parliamentary questions had ended, the speaker said:
"New members wishing to take their seats will please come to the table." A member from Craydon, Sir Allen Spry, walked forward with the usual pair of sponsors, to add words of "hear, hear" from the Unionist benches.

Member of Parliament Beaten By Soldiers

KITCHENER, Ont., Dec. 2.—(Associated Press.)—Made to kiss the Union Jack and subsequently tarred and feathered in the Victoria Park lake last night by a mob which objected to his alleged unpatriotic conduct in the council chamber. Later the mob seized W. R. Fisher, M. P., when they took to the Great War Veterans' Association club rooms and demanded that he kiss the flag and apologize to returned soldiers for alleged unpatriotic utterances. Mr. Fisher refused and was beaten into insensibility.

Club Folk Enjoy Some of Season's Premier Events

By EDNA B. KINARD

Women very well know that if the Community Property bill for which they argued and talked before the state legislature, the enactment of which is not to be lost, it is up to them to begin now the campaign which will bring them victory in November next when the voters of California shall have passed judgment upon it. All manner of plans are brewing, some which will doubtless come into fruition—some which will never be tested. One which is receiving a favorable consideration and which will in all probability be adopted is the offering to the pen-folk of the opportunity to write and produce a play for presentation through the width and breadth of California by a small stock company.

While community property sounds rather dry and uninteresting, there is within its seeming dullness enough gun powder to make a goodly fight and for the lovers of situations and the display of sufficient material for a play well worth while. Just how playwrights will be recruited into life to try their skill in a drama which will not only entertain but will be a contribution to community property legislation, old and new, is something which has yet to be decided.

Mrs. Albert E. Carter of this city is chairman of the general state committee which has been named to direct the campaign against the referendum of next year.

"An Old Problem With a New Meaning" will be the subject for the lecture which H. A. Van Winkle will deliver before the Oakland Club tomorrow afternoon, making an innovation in the program for the regular business session. Solo numbers will be offered by Mrs. J. Thurston Janz and Mrs. M. L. Brooks. Mrs. John Nicholson will preside as chairman of the day. Assisting in receiving the guests will be, beside the members of the board of directors, Mrs. B. Mercer, Mrs. John Donald, Mrs. P. Ellis Miller and others. The Oakland Club received 63 new members during the month of November.

A symposium on Welfare Work for Women was participated in by Miss Elizabeth Skeels, executive secretary of the Associated Charities, Mrs. Edwin P. James, International Institute; Miss Alice Brookman, Y. W. C. A., this afternoon following the December business meeting of Ebell.

Quite the most elaborate function of the week in clubdom was the celebration of the crystal anniversary today which brought together on December 100 members of the membership of Twentieth Century club in honor of the fifteenth birthday party. The luncheon board with its holiday touches was set in the upper hall of the club. According to the year in which the women joined, the members gathered to make merry. Stunts and toasts and numbers by the club cheer, with a great deal of Mrs. Harold Holmes on the work of the luncheon chest, made up the program. The chairman of the day were Mrs. Arthur H. Cole, Mrs. N. Nash, Mrs. Wm. A. Hargrave, Mrs. Flora Thomas, Mrs. Sherrell W. Hall, Mrs. Harvey H. Guy, Mrs. John O. Davis, Mrs. P. G. Athearn, Mrs. Robert P. Thompson, Mrs. Harold E. Peck, Mrs. John F. Kelly, Mrs. J. T. Lydon, Mrs. P. W. Foss, Mrs. Edna Jameson and Miss Etta E. Graham.

A musical is the form which the December program of the Mills Club of Alameda county will take on Thursday when Mrs. Minna McGauley, just returned from several months' absence in Canada, presides as hostess. The numbers will be offered by Mrs. Grace Jones, piano; Mrs. Walter Scott Cannon, contralto; Miss Katherine Hutcheson, alto; Mrs. Arthur Rickard, soprano; Mrs. Charles Camm, Miss Harriet Hurdley, accompanists.

Assisting Mrs. McGauley in the receiving line in Alumnae Hall on the campus will be Mrs. C. E. Darling, Mrs. Stephen J. Hill, Mrs. H. Chandler, Mrs. R. M. Stonestree, Miss Florence French, Mrs. E. C. Robinson, president, will preside as chairman.

While quarantine prevails in the West Oakland schools, the Parent-Teachers' Associations are without a home, for the clubs within the school grounds are without the law. For a time it seemed as though the Christmas plans for the younger students in the Clawson school must be abandoned. But the mothers decided that could not happen. They have gone to work to prepare the "party." The trees and the candies will be forthcoming. The association will see that all is ready before they turn it over to the teachers to carry out. December 11 is the Christmas party day.

In the meantime, the Clawson Parent-Teachers' Association will meet at the residence of Mrs. Theodora Leary, 1414 Alameda street, in the afternoon. The conference in holiday plans is announced for Thursday at 2 p. m. A little secret is slipping out that already ordered has been placed for $30 worth of candy.

PUNISH GUILTY, REPAIR DAMAGE, FOE AGAIN TOLD

LONDON, Dec. 2.—The allies have replied to Germany's protest against making reparation for the destruction of the interned German fleet at Scapa Flow, expressing astonishment that Germany does not desire punishment of the state guilty, said a news agency despatch from Paris today.

"So long as the German conscience does not understand that evil must be repaired and criminals punished Germany must not expect to re-enter the community of nations," said the reply.

"Nor can Germany expect to obtain from the allies forgiveness for her fault or annulment of the just conditions of peace."

Titled Women Seek To Regain Property

BERLIN, Dec. 2.—Baroness Speck von Sternberg, widow of Count von Bernstorff's predecessor as German ambassador in Washington, and who retains much of the beauty and charm that made her famous as Lillian May Langham, left Berlin today for Copenhagen on the Frederick VIII-December 4 for America, where she will try to regain her citizenship and property.

The Baroness is lame, in poor health and penniless. She is enabled to return only through friends who advanced her the money for a ticket.

"I cannot even afford to take my little dog," she said, just before her departure from Berlin.

Other American-born women who are on their way to America to make an effort to regain their property from the alien-property custodian are Countess Matuschka, who was Ella Walker of Detroit; Countess Montagu, who is a native of Grand Rapids, and Princess Berta von Iseburg, who hails from New Orleans.

There are, it is estimated, 75,000-900 consumers of chewing gum in the United States.

SUFFRAGE PASSED BY NORTH DAKOTA

BISMARCK, N. D., Dec. 2.—North Dakota late yesterday became the twentieth state to ratify the federal suffrage amendment, when the House approved the suffrage resolution already passed by the Senate, 102 to 6.

The vote ended the battle for votes for women in this state which began in 1855 when the territorial legislature adopted Dakota's first suffrage amendment, which was vetoed by Governor Pierce.

The House yesterday killed a bill defining and penalizing criminal syndicalism, adopted a committee report indefinitely postponing action on the repeal of the anti-injunction act passed by the last legislature, prohibiting interference by courts in labor troubles.

A heated discussion arose in the House over the manner in which the schools of the state should be supervised and whether "new thought" and "free love" books deserved a place in the books distributed by the library commission.

DENY REPORT OF PICTURE BRIDE BREAK

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 2.—Assertion that the Japanese Association of America did not repudiate its board of directors in opposing a resolution adopted by the board which asked for the abolition of the "picture bride" practice, but gave its full moral support to the resolution, was made here today by N. Kanski, secretary of the association. Delegates of the association finished a three day discussion on the picture bride issue yesterday. Reports that the board of directors and all of the officers of the association had resigned were confirmed by Kanski, but he said such resignations were due to the method used by the board in adopting the resolution and not because of any opposition to the resolution itself. A committee from the association as a whole has waited upon the officers and board and has requested them to reconsider their resignations, he said. Their decision is expected today.

"The delegates felt that the picture bride practice should be passed on finally by the governments of the United States and Japan," Kanski said. "They determined, therefore, that as far as the association was concerned the issue should be stripped of all legal and technical phases but that the association should lend its full moral support toward the elimination of the picture bride practice."

GIRLS, BEWARE OF "CIRCUMFLEX INFLECTIONS"

Beware of the person with "circumflex inflections" in his voice, for that person is not as nice as his voice would lead you to believe, says Miss A. H. Allen of the University of California public speaking department.

By "circumflex inflections," Miss Allen says is meant "that varying of vocal tones which produces the 'parly voee' assumed by many people, which in turn is caused by the condition that these people say one thing and mean another."

Sarcasm and cynicism, as well as insincerity, produce the same action of the voice which denotes affection, says Miss Allen, for the inflection in these cases tends to go two directions at once.

This type of inflection is the opposite of straightforwardness and sincerity, and therefore Miss Allen warns University of California not only against the habit of allowing their inflections to become circumflex, but also to avoid persons who are subject to that habit, for their statements, like their tones, are liable to be assumed and insincere.

Man Given Long Term For Slugging Grocer

No one who shows such brutal impulses and tactics as Ernest Bert Hyde, 34, will be granted probation, declared Judge James G. Quinn in sentencing him to one to fourteen years in San Quentin for an assault with intent to commit murder today.

Hyde pleaded guilty to entering the store of Luigi Giachino, 610 West street, and when his back was turned hitting him over the head with a rock tied in a handkerchief. This only enraged Giachino, says the report of Probation Officer Leonard Compton, and he replied by hurling a can of beans at the assailant and followed this with numerous articles of canned goods. While the melee was in progress the police arrived.

DU PONT INVESTS MONEY IN MOVIES

Confirmation of the prediction that Wall street millicies have gone into the "movies" has come from New York in the announcement that the heads of the DuPont Powder Company and several New York bankers have become affiliated with the Goldwyn Picture Corporation. The new merger is said to make the Goldwyn Company one of the strongest in the motion picture production industry in the United States.

The new members of the Goldwyn Company are H. P. DuPont, vice-president of the DuPont Powder Company; Eugene E. DuPont, W. W. Laird of Laird & Co., Wilmington, Del.; H. R. M. Carpenter, vice-president of the DuPont Powder Company; C. G. Kurtz, vice-president of the Wilmington Trust Company; E. R. Thayer, president of the Chase National Bank of New York; Duncan A. Holmes, vice-president of the Chase Securities Corporation; William Topkins, George T. Bissel, G. W. Davidson, vice-president of the Central Union Trust Company, New York; MacMillan Hoopes and Albert M. Wittenberg, a member of H. Conitt & Co.

These men will be actively identified with the business of the Goldwyn Corporation and will act on the directorate in addition to the present board.

U. C. Campus Flooded During Showers

BERKELEY, Dec. 2.—For the first time during this season, water from the streams flowing onto the University of California campus from Strawberry canyon, following the rainstorm yesterday, The water of these streams has been used in the past for the purpose of irrigating the university grounds during the dry summer season, and with the idea of storing some of the present season's flood, small dams have been constructed at frequent intervals along the courses of the creeks during the past month.

CONDEMN FOUR CARS OF APPLES

Four carloads of apples shipped into the local wholesale commission market from outside counties have been condemned this week by D. P. Macdonald, deputy county horticultural commissioner, and sent to cold storage plants to be repacked.

The fruit was packed in standard boxes and marked "fancy," but on inspection by Macdonald proved to be wormy and full of decayed spots. Under the provisions of the state standardization law it is a misdemeanor to pack such fruit and offer it for sale. The bulk of the fruit that has been coming into the local market has been free from worms and blights according to the deputy county horticultural commissioner, but occasionally some packers send in packages that fail to meet the legal requirements.

Care watch is being kept for such fruit and violators of the law are being prosecuted. This is the first season that the county horticultural commissioners of the state have had the backing of a new and much more stringent law than formerly, and many violators have been fined.

At a recent meeting of the county horticultural commissioners of the state at Chico a joint campaign of the various counties to wage war on inferior and poorly packed fruit next year was outlined.

Strenuous efforts are to be put forth, the horticultural commissioners say, to bring California fruits to a higher standard by vigorously enforcing the state standardization law. A ban is to be placed on the practice of one county shipping unsalable fruits into another county. All consignments are to be inspected in the state at Chico, a joint campaign of this way it is hoped to curb the scrupulous practices by a small percentage of California fruit growers.

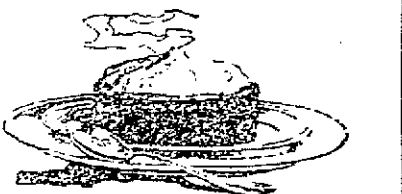

Husband Loses Chance To Reclaim His Wife

John M. B. Creety waited too long and did not show sufficient diligence to have the divorce decree obtained by Mrs. Bessie M. Creety set aside, according to a ruling made by Judge Everett Brown today. Creety alleged that he attempted to have his wife delay her divorce suit until their son returned from France and went to see J. P. Street, her attorney, for that purpose but received an evasive reply. Later he sought to find out how the matter stood in the courts, Creety says in an affidavit, but could find no record and did not know he was divorced until told so by Mrs. Creety when they met on the street.

This was last June and Creety waited until now to file his motion to have the decree set aside. Judge Brown held that Creety had not shown sufficient diligence in looking up the records of the case and waited too long after being told before bringing the motion. In her divorce complaint Mrs. Creety alleged numerous cruelties which included abuse of the children, a dog, a horse and a cow. They were married in 1897.

City Clerk Elected As Chief Conductor

City Clerk Lon W. Cummings has been elected chief conductor of Golden Gate Division No. 364, Order of Railway Conductors. Other officers elected for the ensuing term were: F. D. Stewart, assistant conductor; D. H. McIntyre, senior conductor; G. D. Whitney, junior conductor; George L. Colegrove, inside sentinel, and E. R. Owen, outside sentinel. Commissioner W. H. Edwards was named legislative committeeman.

'BLUE BIRD' BUREAU OF THE TRIBUNE

GOOD FELLOWS!
Here's a form for you to fill out. It will aid you in stating your plans for making your Christmas a happy one.
If you will be a good fellow on Christmas to some family of needy children in Oakland, fill out the attached blank and send it to "The TRIBUNE," Blue Bird Department.
I live at No. street.
I will be Santa Claus to children
(as many as you wish). Please give me the names of children in (state what section of city you prefer to have assigned to you.)
(Sign your name and give phone number.)

Many are the letters coming in to "Dear Goodfellows." "Dear Blue Bird," and "Dear Santa," but the responses are few. Children are counting on you, Good Fellows, to be Santa Claus to them on Christmas day, and what could be more pitiful than a sad-eyed girl or boy over an empty stocking.

This is an example of the letters received:
"Dear bluebird please tell Santa Claus to bring my brother and me some toys and me a coat I am 8 years old, my brothers is 5 years. Thank you"
Another one reads:
"Dear goodfellows, I would wish you make my Christmas happy one for I am a little girl that had my father sick for 7 months my poor father have been with 3 Drs. but for now he is little better than my mother had to go and work so that we could live."
"Dear Santa Claus I would wish that you could make my Christmas happy with some clothes and toys and something that we could have for our Christmas dinner."
"Dear Santa Claus I don't think

THIEVES DISGUISE AS WOUNDED MEN

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 2.—Masquerading as wounded service men, thieves have succeeded in entering the convalescent wards of the Letterman Hospital regularly during the past three months and, in all, are believed to have stolen $2000 worth of property from the wounded men and the army.

Two hundred hospital blankets, bed linen, bath robes and convalescent suits have been among the hauls of the robbers. Wearing overalls uniforms and many of them wearing all of the stripes to indicate extended active service in France, it is said, thieves found little difficulty in getting past bedside sentries.

Chinatown hotels are said to have been the "fences" for stolen goods and it is said the Chinamen eagerly bought the government goods as fast as it was brought out. The work of trading stolen goods is complicated by the fact that the quartermaster department has recently sold surplus goods to downtown stores similar to that stolen.

"Pape's Diapiespin" puts Sour, Gassy, Acid Stomachs in order at once!
Wonder what upset your stomach—which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; if it sick, gassy, and upset, and what you just ate has fermented and turned sour; head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food—just eat a tablet or two of Pape's Diapiespin to help neutralize acidity and in five minutes you wonder what became of the indigestion and discomfort.
If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quick-acting, surest, most harmless antacid is Pape's Diapiespin, which costs so little at drug stores.—Advertisement.

IF YOU ARE THIN

and want to put on pounds of solid gray-there flesh, go to The Owl Drug Co. or any other druggist and get a three weeks treatment of Blood-Iron Phosphate and take one five-grain tablet with each meal. It's ten to one that you'll gain at least 2 lbs. a week; but if you aren't satisfied you can have your money back for the asking. Blood-Iron Phosphate is absolutely harmless; contains no dangerous or stimulating drugs, narcotics or alkaloids. All it does is to build up the nervous system and make rich red blood. Hundreds of people right here in Oakland who have tried it say it is simply amazing to note the wonderful gain in flesh, appearance, strength, endurance, vim and vigor that almost invariably accompanies the regular use of Blood-Iron Phosphate. Better try it at once—costs nothing if it fails.—Advertisement.

Samuel Goldwyn Presents
Pauline Frederick
in "THE LOVES OF LETTY"
by Sir Arthur Wing Pinero
FRANK LLOYD

"You never think of the other fellow's sister!"
It is Pauline Frederick speaking—speaking across the swift currents of temptation and trials in London—speaking on the threshold of luxury and sin—speaking to her million sisters the world over who hold their honor higher than the luxury of shame—captivating you one minute with the matchless quality of her beauty—wringing your heart the next with the utter hopelessness and helplessness of her struggle—but re-affirming at last your belief in the nobility of womanhood, as she cries out in a voice that seems to break the silence of the screen—
"I'm going—going back where I belong!"

What's coming next?
Tonight, in hundreds of cities, in thousands of theatres, wherever the art of Goldwyn casts its magic spell over the human heart, one unspoken question is running through millions of minds—
WHAT'S COMING NEXT?
And nobody knows!—nobody but the great Goldwyn story tellers, who are past masters in the art of holding their audience thrilled in the fairy borderlands of suspense!
Other New Goldwyn Releases:
Tom Moore in "The Gay Lord Ques."
Robert Hughes in "The Cup of Fury."
Gerardine Farrar in "The Flame of the Desert."

WIFE TOO PURE, SAYS HUSBAND

SAN FRANCISCO NEWS

U. S. AGENTS JOIN BOMB PROBE

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 2.—"Too pure to be my wife," was the complaint of Philip S. Kamm, clubman and former army lieutenant, according to Mrs. Marie Roberts Kamm, prominent war worker and social favorite, who obtained a divorce secretly last Friday in Superior Judge Dunne's court. She declared she objected to her going to church, swore at her, cursed her in public and struck her in private.

She told of returning from church to find her husband entertaining men friends at their apartments in the Fairmont hotel. He was clad in his pajamas. When she suggested that he dress, he insulted her, she alleged, and made his usual charge: "You are too pure to be my wife."

Another complaint was that Kamm became violently angry when it was suggested that he go to work. Mrs. Walker Kamm, wife of Kamm's brother, was a corroborating witness for the plaintiff.

Mrs. Marie Roberts Kamm is the daughter of E. D. Roberts, banker and former state treasurer. The Kamms were married in Riverside in 1914.

FEDERAL AGENTS JOIN BOMB INVESTIGATION
Federal authorities here joined the police in searching for the bomb in the office of the front Employers' association yesterday. Three hundred lives were endangered. The infernal machine contained four pounds of black gunpowder, connected by copper wire to dry cell batteries, and pieces of steel, nails and small rocks.

According to officers who investigated the device, it was so ingeniously constructed and capable of so much destruction that if it had exploded it would have blown up the entire office and killed or maimed all persons within it.

WAR WORKER CHARGED WITH EXTRAVAGANCE
Dr. George Henry Richardson, now residing at 224 Grove street, Berkeley, has filed suit for divorce from Emma Marie Louise Richardson. Dr. Richardson was prominent as an instructor in first aid and other war work, training many San Francisco society girls who later went to France.

Mrs. Richardson is charged with nagging, is declared to possess an ungovernable temper and to have spent money extravagantly from their community property.

Dr. Richardson, who recently suffered a stroke of paralysis, said that his practice had been ruined by his wife's actions. They were married in 1902 and have one child, Herman, age 16.

RECONCILIATION PROVES FAILURE AFTER MONTH
"And how did the trial reconciliation work out?" asked Judge Conlan.

"Oh, after a bit he assumed the airs of a husband and before the end of the month threatened to take my life," said Miss Mary L. Dean. "I decided that the experiment was a failure and after the two chaperones had listened to him threaten me they agreed."

Miss Dean was sued in two courts by J. C. Bray, Los Angeles hardware dealer, her former husband. He sought to recover a $300 diamond ring he gave her to bind their second engagement, and $200 he said he "loaned" her during the reconciliation experiment. He lost both suits. Judge Barnett decided the ring was a gift and Judge Conlan said it must have cost nearly $200 to feed Bray during the test period.

The Brays were divorced in February, 1917, after fourteen years of married life, decided on the trial reconciliation last May.

CHARGES MAGICIAN IS CHAIRMAN OF WOMEN

Charles J. Carter, the magician, is a woman charmer. declares Mrs. Corinne Carter, who has petitioned the Superior court to grant her $300 a month separate maintenance. She also asks for the family home on Sea Cliff drive.

Mrs. Carter names six alleged affinities of her conjugal husband. They are: Mrs. Marian Wigginton, Mrs. Philip Heald, Miss Bryant, Miss Gaila Bush, Miss Walters, Miss Florence Gaffney and Adele Trilston. The wife charges that on their tours, Carter uses her as a leading woman and then releases her to the background until the tires of the new favorite. They have been married twenty-five years and have a grown son.

MANY DONATIONS

GIVEN RED CROSS

BERKELEY, Dec. 2.—Many donations have been received for sale at the Red Cross shop during the past week, but the directors of the revenue producing branch of the Red Cross chapter are anxious to hear from other citizens who wish to aid the charities maintained or assisted by the Red Cross workers.

Any articles, whether of value for sale direct to the consumer, or for sale as salvage, are acceptable to the chapter, which has a complete organization for converting such donations into cash. The chapter, under the direction of Rev. W. J. H. Hodgson, chairman, is assisting in the maintenance of the day nursery through the purchase of milk for children cared for there, and also pays the salary and expenses of a visiting graduate nurse who cooperates with the dispensary.

Registrations for a class in Braille, the raised alphabet of the blind, are still being received at Red Cross headquarters. Women desiring to assist in this form of rehabilitation work are invited to communicate by telephone with Red Cross headquarters. The class is under the auspices of the chapter, which has a complete organization for converting such donations into cash.

Work for the aid of discharged service men, and for children who are wards of the juvenile court, is being developed according to plans recently developed. Those interested in providing homes for unfortunate children are requested to communicate with the Red Cross.

HALF HOLIDAY IN GRADES IS URGED

BERKELEY, Dec. 2.—Half-day sessions in the Berkeley schools for pupils of the lower primary grades may be urged by the Berkeley Federation of Mothers as a result of investigations now being made by that body as to the feasibility of the plan.

According to the mothers many of the children derive no benefit from the additional hour of work after lunch, declaring that a morning session is all that some of the smaller pupils can stand from both a mental and physical standpoint. A special committee consisting of Mrs. P. E. Nelson as chairman and Mrs. Nelson Dickerman of the John Muir School and Mrs. William Wood of the Emerson School has been appointed by Mrs. J. Koughan, president of the Federation, to make a complete survey of the entire city to obtain expressions of opinion from all of the schools. A partial report submitted by the committee at yesterday's meeting of the federation held in the council chamber at the city hall showed a divided opinion among the schools and various suggestions that for the work of the committee was ordered continued.

According to Mrs. Koughan requests have come to her as head of the federation for a memorandum in favor of the combination of the half-day session for younger pupils as in operation in the city during a period of recess in the schools.

Berkeley Dispensary Plans Benefit Dance

BERKELEY, Dec. 2.—Plans have been completed for the dance to be given Friday evening at Twentieth Century Club house for the benefit of the Berkeley Dispensary, and a large attendance is expected. The event will be under the auspices of the employees of the Custer Laboratory and the general public is cordially invited.

The proceeds from the dance will be given direct to the dispensary as a Christmas gift.

BERKELEY BUYS AUTO.

BERKELEY, Dec. 2.—The council today gave final passage to an ordinance authorizing the expenditure of not more than $1000 for the purchase of an automobile for the health department. It will be used by Miss Florence Patterson, recently appointed city health visitor.

Berkeley Organist, Alice Lansing, Dead

BERKELEY, Dec. 2.—Following an illness of several months, Mrs. Alice Neal Lansing, well known organist of Berkeley, died yesterday at her home, 1911 Milvia street, aged 53 years. Mrs. Lansing was prominent in the affairs of Epworth M. E. church and was organist there for a number of years. She was a native of Minnesota and had resided in Berkeley for the past twelve years.

Surviving are two daughters and two sons, Miss Frances Lansing of this city; Mrs. Callie Crane of Ellensburg and William and Neal Lansing of San Francisco. Funeral services will be conducted at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, Epworth church, with the pastor, Rev. Moffitt Rhodes, officiating.

Undesirable Pianos

There are two kinds of undesirable pianos. One, the sort that costs too little to be safe. The other, the kind that costs more than it is worth.

In forty-six years of musical merchandising we have never had anything to do with either kind. We protect our customers as carefully against extravagance as against disappointment.

But there is a piano—

The Euphonia Player Piano

that we are proud to represent and to recommend. It is so moderately priced as to be within the means of every family, so thoroughly good in tone durability and appearance that it will wear out any guarantee that you could reasonably ask of it. It is so musical, so easy of operation, so wholly desirable, that it is known far and wide as the very best low-priced Player Piano to be had. Easy payments.

Quakes in Asia Minor Bear Out Predictions of Professor Porta for Dec.

LONDON, Dec. 2.—Many persons were killed or injured and several villages destroyed by an earthquake in the extreme western part of Anatolia, in Asia Minor, said an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Constantinople today. The shocks centered in the districts of Soma and Balikesir. Widespread damage was reported outside of the destroyed villages.

Once more the predictions of Prof. Albert Porta, the TRIBUNE prophet of celestial and mundane phenomena, have come true. Despatches today tell of an earthquake in the western part of Anatolia, in Asia Minor. This disturbance is in accordance with Prof. Porta's forecast for Period 1, in December, from the second to the sixth of the month. He predicted earthquakes, "chiefly produced by the conjunctions of Mercury with the Earth." The conjunction actually occurs tomorrow, and more shocks, light in this part of the world, may be expected, according to the prophecy.

Attention again is called to the erroneous impression gained by some persons that the TRIBUNE, which was spread about until it caused a panic in parts of Mexico, that Porta had predicted the end of the world this month. As explained thoroughly by Prof. Porta in yesterday's TRIBUNE, he made no such prophecy.

CHANGE URGED IN INITIATIVE BY PROF. REED

BERKELEY, Dec. 2.—Stating that "cranks can put their 'isms' before public too easily," under the present system of securing action on initiative measures by petition, Professor T. H. Reed today outlined the progress of the initiative, referendum and recall before a class at the University of California.

"It is too easy," says Reed, "to secure names on petitions of these sorts, especially when they are solicited by paid men, for the element of charity enters into the transaction. Petition signers should have interest enough in the matter which is to be voted upon to journey to some central point, as the city hall, in order to sign their name. One of the present troubles with the voting public is that they have not been educated as to the proper use of their signature."

"Besides this curbing of petition signing, I would suggest that the initiative should not be used for appropriating funds nor for authorizing the expenditure of any additional funds before the end of the current fiscal year, for this practice upsets the budget system of municipal finance."

"The initiative is the most active of the three devices, for the reason that this means easily gains adherents for the small number of people who usually back these propositions."

"The referendum is not used to any extent in municipal government, because this device is negative and conservative. It may be termed as operating with an effect opposite radicalism."

"The recall is the least used of the three measures, although Seattle, Los Angeles and Dallas each have held two recall elections which resulted in the officers' removal. The recall, however, was used most when it was new, and in the last four or five years its operation has been on the decline. In fact all of these devices have not been used as much as was first thought they would be, for the general tendency of the people is to be conservative. The only officials who are liable to recall now are those who are so obviously corrupt that they could be removed without recall by legal procedure in the courts."

An owl will catch more mice than a dozen cats.

DR. J. E. CLARK RUN DOWN BY LAD IN AUTO

Oakland's toll of automobile accidents, due to violation of the laws of the city and of the state, is increased by three today, and three drivers, one a small boy, are being sought for having sped away from the victims they had run down.

The small boy was driving a Ford delivery truck, No. 255609, and ran down Dr. J. E. Clark, 5701 Carling street, at Thirteenth and Washington streets, last night.

According to the report of inspectors Robert Tracy and John Gannaw, the boy looked back, after striking the physician, and then sped away. He offered no assistance. Dr. Clark was taken to the emergency hospital. He sustained a possible fracture of the forearm, besides several bruises.

MOTORMAN KNOCKED DOWN. While he was switching a San Pablo avenue car at sixteenth street, last night, Motorman Stewart W. Williams of 1351 Third avenue was knocked to the ground by an autoist, who accelerated his speed and escaped. Witnesses identified the machine as a Ford that ran through the gates at Stanford and San Pablo.

Williams was badly bruised and received a deep laceration over the right temple. Inspectors Robert Tracy and John Gannaw investigated but could find no trace of the autoist.

Run down by a motor-propelled delivery wagon, Thomas McKiernan, 1351 Thirteenth street, a night watchman at the courthouse, received a fracture of the right arm and severe cuts and bruises about the face and head. Taken to the emergency hospital for treatment, McKiernan could not explain the accident and said the driver had the whole street clear when he ran into him as he was crossing the street at Fifth and Broadway. He did not obtain the name of the bakery wagon. McKiernan was later removed to his home.

CHILDREN CAUSE CONCERN. There was considerable feeling today in police circles as a result of accidents in which juveniles figured. Summary action in dealing with these juveniles may be recommended to the juvenile authorities by police officials. The feeling is intensified by the death of Mrs. Helen James Jenkins, who was struck down by a vehicle in the hands of 14-year-old Joe Casella.

Thirteen-year-old Annie Peterschauer, 3191 Fifty-fifth avenue, was told to have her father, Stephen, explain at police headquarters why he allowed her to drive a milk wagon, at her tender age. The child was driving the wagon last night and collided with an auto driven by W. T.

Enter Louis the Fourteenth On Arm of I. W. W. Witness; Lobby Gives Royal Welcome

Out of the timber camps of the northwest W. E. Hall, self-styled missionary to the lumberjacks, came today to testify for the defense of James McHugo against a charge of criminal syndicalism. Hall stayed but a brief time on the stand.

One answer to a question put to him by William E. Cleary, counsel for McHugo, contributed to the brevity of his stay on the stand. The prosecution attorneys, Deputies A. Rogers and John U. Calkins, had been protesting during the morning to what they termed the delivery of propaganda speeches in answer to questions. On the heels of their protests Cleary asked Hall:

"What is the object of the I. W. W.?"

"The object is simply this," Hall replied. "When Louis the Fourteenth—"

"The laugh that followed his interrupted statement not only served to abbreviate the remainder of his testimony but served Judge James G. Quinn as the text for a warning to the lobby against disorder."

WON OVER BY STRIKE. Hall testified that he had been in the American Federation of Labor before joining the Industrial Workers, but was won over to the latter organization by the manner in which the timber strike had been conducted in Washington in 1919. This strike, which has been cited by the prosecution in the present case as an I. W. W. war-time blow at the government, was called, he said, jointly by the American Federation of Labor and I. W. W.

MARSH DESCRIBED. Asked to name the men prominent in advising or directing the strike, witness named E. P. Marsh and others.

"Who was Marsh?" asked Cleary. "He was a member of the Washington State Council of Defense, witness replied."

"What is he now?"

"He is a labor mediator for the government."

"Engaged in an effort to settle the tailor strike in San Francisco?"

"There was no violence in the strike, he said, but that the Industrial Workers assumed the folded-arms attitude and avoided overt acts. "There wasn't even a fist fight," said the witness.

He declared he had "been a sort of missionary" among the timber workers, organizing originally for the American Federation of Labor and later for the I. W. W. He was not permitted to answer Cleary's questions as to why he joined the I. W. W. or if he was sorry he had joined. The prosecution contented itself with the cross-examination by developing that he had testified for the defense.

American Legion to Discuss Japanese

Policy of the Oakland post of American Legion in regard to all questions of anti-Japanese legislation being considered in this state and nationally will be discussed and formulated at a meeting of the post in the Municipal auditorium tonight.

A national policy urging legislation to stop leasing of land to Japanese and ending the "picture bride" system of Oriental marriage in this country was adopted at the recent convention in Minneapolis. Captain Peterson, delegate from Oakland to the national meet, will make a report on this. It is expected that resolutions will be passed asking the governor to call an anti-Japanese session of the legislature.

Pupils' Work To Be Exhibited Tomorrow

Smart hats, modish dresses and blouses, as well as smocks and other work of pupils in millinery and dressmaking classes of Vocational High school, will be on show at the school, Twelfth and Market streets, tomorrow afternoon.

This is the annual fall and winter exhibit of the special classes in these lines of work, and is intended to give the general public an opportunity of judging the excellence and practical helpfulness of this instruction, available to all women and girls of the city who wish to take advantage of it.

An exhibit of the work of students in freehand drawing and design will be open on the same afternoon, beginning at 2:30.

In several states children are being taught in the schools the danger of playing with fire.

AUNT ELSIE'S KIDDLE KORNER

The regular kiddle nest in the spring time but cork birds are ever so much more obliging. They nest any time there's a cork nest handy—and as they have candy eggs I'm sure they should be very popular. You don't have to buy them in the bird stores, either, nor set traps for them. Just find a couple of old corks, a few few feathers, some paper, pins, straw and your ten merrily fingered and too-ra-lee! There's your kiddle.

First shape her head as in Fig. 1. Then prepare a cork with a slit in the smaller end and two pins for legs stuck in either side. Make two more like Fig. 2—then put it all together as in Fig. 4—sticking the tail feather in as snugly as possible.

Now, of course, she must have a nest. You have all made little baskets from corks and pins and wool, haven't you? Begin your nest in the same way by putting a circle of pins around a large, rather flat cork. Then instead of weaving yarn into the pins, weave bits of straw and grass. Cut a lot of leaves from paper like Fig. 6 and paste them around the base of the nest. Line the nest with bits of fluffiness, mount it on a twig, fill it with candy eggs and let Mrs. Bird perch on the edge of her new home. And I ALMOST FORGOT: OF COURSE YOU MUSTN'T EAT THE EGGS!

HELEN LEAVENS.

Once upon a time there lived a king who had a very beautiful daughter. A prince wished to marry her but, although the princess loved the prince, the king refused, saying he was not good enough for her. So there came a king who wished to wed her. This king had so much money that he did not know where to put it all but he was terribly ugly. The princess's father decided that she should marry him.

"But father, how can I marry such a monster!" she cried.

"This made the king so angry that he shut her up in a tower. There you shall stay," said he, "until you promise to marry this king."

The poor princess was in despair. She wrote a note to her prince lover and sent it off by her pet dove. Days passed before an answer came. Then back came the dove with the note saying that the prince was coming to rescue her as fast as he could. Just as she finished reading the note he came her father.

"If you do marry the king in three days you will be hanged," said he. "I shall come for your answer tomorrow."

The poor princess was nearly dead of fright. Her very first thought came a knock at her window and there was the prince! They fled away together to the prince's castle and reached it by morning—when they were married. As for the king, he was so angry when he found she was gone that he fell down the stairs and broke his neck.

RUTH WHITE.

Dear Aunt Elsie—

I am in the high Fourth Grade of Haight school and my teacher is very nice. My brother has a black dog named Teddy. He plays with my brother and only bites in fun. One day a little girl was picking flowers when she found a butterfly with a red wing. She took it home and put it into a box with some flowers. There was no cover on the box. A few days later she missed the butterfly and there he was, flying about the room.

"You have saved my life," said he, "and I will grant you one wish."

The little girl said: "I wish to be always good and true." And she was.

It's quite evident that one may begin as almost anything in life—cabin boy, street digger or ORGAN GRINDER'S MONKEY—and still achieve a glorious fate. As witness this Monkey fur hat and muff on the brown silk duvetyn dress and the peaches and cream lady. To be sure perhaps it wasn't the organ grinder's monkey—but an uncle on his mother's side or even a more distant relation. That doesn't matter. The point is that you may begin by hopping for pennies and end by being lined with chiton and having a golden rose pinned on side. So don't be discouraged.

THEY DO NOT ADMIT TO ANY CLUB. THE ONLY CLUB WE HAVE IS THE AUNT ELSIE CLUB FOR TRICINE KIDDIES AND TO GET INTO THAT YOU MUST GET ONE SUBSCRIPTION TO THE TRIBUNE—NOT A DESCRIPTION. PERHAPS SOME OF THE REST OF YOU ARE MAKING THIS SAME MISTAKE AND THIS WILL SET YOU RIGHT.

ALICE ROTTMAN.

Dear Aunt Elsie—

I love our page so much that I set up early on Sunday mornings so I can get the paper. I like every bit of it. I am going to copy a little verse out of an old story book of my mother's:

Mama made five cookie boys.
Standing in a row,
With heads and eyes and hands and legs
They made a splendid show.

Alice saw the cookie boys
Lying in the hall.
Gave each one a gentle kiss,
And then—SHE ATE THEM ALL!

Every Christmas Eve, my mother makes cookie boys out of ginger cake. I put in the eyes, nose and mouth with colored frosting. We bake them hard and the dough must be very hard or they will run all over the pan. We put hats on some. Then we hang them on the tree and give them to children who come to see the tree. I did some fancy scrip of poems for the sick kiddies. Your loving friend,

ALICE ROTTMAN.

Every girl should have more than one style of dressing her hair. Appropriateness and stability to the occasion must be taken into consideration. Even if puffs, curls and other intricate styles of coiffure happen to be beautiful, remember that it would be very poor taste to wear them to business or while attending to household duties. Save the elaborate coiffure along with your fluffy dresses and high-heeled slippers for parties and dances.

It is difficult to make overly-oily hair appear fluffy. If your hair is excessively oily you should shampoo it frequently. If the oil glands are too active they may be aided by the use of the following tonic:

Resorcin 40 grains
Water 12 ounces
Which hotel?

This lotion should be applied every night as well as after the shampoo until the oiliness is relieved.

If your hair is too dry, vaseline or olive oil, carefully rubbed into your scalp, will prove beneficial. These oils should be applied with a great deal of friction, as half the value lies in thorough stimulation of the blood vessels. Massage is beneficial to a dry scalp. An excellent tonic for dry hair is made of:

Castor oil 12 ounces
Vaseline 12 ounces
Gallie acid 12 drams
Oil of lavender 12 drops

Apply a few drops with the end of your fingers every night and massage your scalp thoroughly.

Just Folks

THE GOOD BENEATH

Sometimes the other fellow does a thing that I detest. Sometimes I hear him scoffing at the things which I like best. Yet I know that he is kindly, and I know that he is true, And I know the big and fine things are the deeds he wants to do, And I've come to this conclusion: That a dreary world 'twould be If we always judged each other by the trivial flaws we see.

No one ever gains perfection, and the best of us is stained. By the things we do in weakness oft our truest friends are pained. And I sometimes sit and wonder, as another's faults I see, If the world is overlooking all the blemishes in me. And I wonder where we'll finish if we're judged by such a test That our worst is held against us and God fails to see our best?

Oh the other fellow's trying just as hard as you and I Here on earth to do his finest till the day that he must die. And with all his faults and habits, if we only understood, I think we'd find his motives for the greater part are good. And I like to give him credit, though he does things I detest, For the man he is and will be when he's living at his best.

REVELATIONS OF A WIFE

ADELE GARRISON

Lillian turned her head and looked at me fixedly. The glare of the street-lights etched her fine, strong features against the dusky background of the taxi. Her eyes were no longer angry, but thoughtful, appraising. Then the ghost of a smile crept into them.

"I'm glad you're come to your senses, Madge," she said, while I stared at her in open-mouthed astonishment. Lillian always does the unexpected thing, and never in my life I got used to her.

"Of course, I owe you an apology," she went on. "I went simply berserk at the thought of Harry's playing me a trick like that. And then to have you do the sympathetic stunt—"

She stopped as if in inability to express her own anger.

"But all this is beside the main point," she went on, dismissing her own place in the affair. "You've realized at last what I've been hoping you'd see for months. I knew I'd have to give you a jolt of some kind, but truly I didn't mean to do it this way."

"You're right, for speaking to you in the way I did, but—do you realize that your own mental attitude has been at fault? That, for instance, if Katherine had been in your place, she wouldn't have dared to speak to her in the tone and manner I used to you?"

"KEEP THAT UP"

She was turning the knife in the wound. I realized the probe was necessary, but made up my mind that I would not let her go until it was necessary for me to undergo a similar operation in mental surgery.

"I don't think you will ever have reason to complain of that particular place in my life again," I said, and at my tone Lillian laughed outright.

"That's the trick," she said approvingly. "Keep that up and you'll find your place in my life again."

The arrangement of your hair, like the choice of your clothing, is so personal and so dependent upon your features and figure that it is possible for any one to give you general advice. However, from the general advice I am about to offer, you should decide what manner of hairdressing is best becoming to you and most appropriate to the occasion for which you select it.

It is worth spending a good deal of time to find becoming arrangements for your hair, because although your hair may be most beautiful and luxurious, if it is done only with regard for fashion and not with the idea of becomingness and real harmony with your features, it will detract from, rather than add to, your beauty.

You should try several styles of dressing your hair before you choose one. Be sure that the one you decide on is becoming from every angle. A front view, but it may throw a long nose or a weak chin into unbecoming prominence in profile.

Small, regular features are usually well served by smoothly done hair. Their perfection is emphasized by a simple coiffure.

Irregular features may be given a pleasant look by waving the hair loosely about the face. For this type of face the "set" coiffure must be avoided.

You should have more than one style of dressing your hair. Appropriateness and stability to the occasion must be taken into consideration. Even if puffs, curls and other intricate styles of coiffure happen to be beautiful, remember that it would be very poor taste to wear them to business or while attending to household duties. Save the elaborate coiffure along with your fluffy dresses and high-heeled slippers for parties and dances.

CINEMA CLOSE-UPS

Something new in pictures is the forlorn, pathetic young comedienne. She is sad-eyed Zasu Pitts. But nevertheless they call her the "jazz kid."

"I don't know where they started it," Zasu told an interviewer one day, giving one of those funny Charlie Chaplin-esque slides as she did so. "Two years ago I was one of the unloved girls in the world. I lived on a farm. One day we saw a picture that was the story of my mother, two brothers and myself. Mother believed the girl looked like me. She immediately thought it would be a good idea for me to go into pictures."

"We bought all the motion picture magazines. One thing we soon learned. That the center of the industry was right in our own California (we were living near Santa Cruz). Another suggested that I go to Los Angeles alone and try to 'break in.' She got me all ready for the journey. I had one of those funny little tight-waisted coats and the most ridiculous hat that perched way up on one ear. I'll say I was a scream. But I thought those clothes grand. I went to 'L. A.' with a determination to conquer and knock them all dead with that brand new outfit. I guess I did all right."

"First I went out to Universal City and got into the manager's office. Finally I managed to convey to him, with an awful effort, that I wanted to be an actress. As if he hadn't known it all the time! Then he laughed and I got scared stiff and started to cry and he told me to come back the next day and have a test made."

"I had that test made. I still have it. It was supposed to be a broken woman whose husband was deserting her. My instructions were merely a few words of explanation from the director. Everyone in the studio was there and they all laughed at me. Talk about being frightened! Why, I almost died on the spot. Anyway, they hired me, paid me ten dollars a week and kidded me all of the time. One woman told me she had a dreadful affliction. That her face twitched every afternoon at the stroke of two. And I was simply overcome to believe it. Another man told me that he was a doctor and that he would cure me of my affliction. I stayed away from him."

"I was given bits now and then and quite suddenly one day I was 'broke.' After the nothing particularly exciting happened. I wanted more than anything else to go back to Santa Clara and work in my garden. When I was about to start home, I wanted to play an important part with Mary Pickford. I didn't care. Actually I didn't."

Now she's going strong in comedy with Broadway.

C. Gardner Sullivan, Thos. H. Ince's most prolific and highest paid writer, will leave January 15 from New York City for a two-year tour of the world.

Sullivan has been given a roving commission by Mr. Ince, and will leave the studio with a free mind and just browse around wherever fancy dictates; if the spirit should move him he may write a script now and then, "just for practice," or he may just store up a fund of mental notes for future use. On his cruise Mr. Sullivan will be accompanied by Mrs. Sullivan and they have planned to go direct to London, where some time will be spent, after which plans will be made for the rest of the trip.

PICKS STRONG CAST

William Desmond Taylor picked a strong supporting cast for Mary Miles Minter's second production, "Judy of Rome's Harbor," which he has been producing in Los Angeles. It includes Theodore Roberts, Herbert Standing, Allen Sears, Fritze Ridgway and little Frankie Lee, who was quite prominent in the year's film sensation, "The Miracle Man." Several of these artists are almost in the star class, and the cast is one of the highest paid ever assembled for any picture.

SHOW GIRL TO STAR

From Polaris showgirl to a leading role with a motion picture star is an advance not many girls could make with as few intermediate steps as has Virginia Caldwell, who plays Kathleen, the wife of the barrister, "Beauty" Steele, enacted by Bert Lytell in the Screen Classics, Inc., production of "The Right of Way." Miss Caldwell was a showgirl with Ziegfeld. Next she was a mannequin with Mr. Lytell in "Lombardi, Ltd." Now she has an important part in his support in "The Right of Way." William Desmond's next offering will be "The Parish Priest."

GARLAND'S BEDTIME STORY

(By Howard R. Garis.)

You might have thought him proud, but he was not. I'm speaking of Jackie BowWow, the little puppy dog friend of Uncle Wiggly's and his collar. I mean Jackie's collar, not the rabbit gentleman's. For Jackie had a nice collar. It was made from a piece of shiny, black leather, but a buckle that shone like silver and a plate with his name on that glittered like gold. Every dog that met Jackie BowWow, digging up hidden bones, or chasing cats, could know who Jackie was just by looking at his collar. There was his name as plain as print.

JACKIE BOW WOW.

But still, as I say, Jackie was not proud. With his new collar around his neck he trotted over to Uncle Wiggly's hollow stump bungalow, tamped at the door with his paw, taking care not to scratch with his toenails, and, when Nurse Jane opened it, Jackie asked:

"Is Uncle Wiggly in?"

"Yes, but he isn't coming out to go to school with you," answered the muskrat lady housekeeper, with a laugh. "Besides, it's too late to go to school today. Why aren't you at your lessons?"

"I didn't have to go today," barked Jackie, as he made believe to try to chase his tail. "Mother took me down to the three and four-cent store to buy me a new collar. I got it on now. I came over to show it to Uncle Wiggly. Can't he be out?"

"Oh, yes, I suppose so!" laughed Nurse Jane again, and her whiskers curled around the back of her neck she felt so jolly. "I'll call him. And that certainly is a nice collar you have, Jackie. Well, I'll let him go. He'll be back soon."

"Uncle Wiggly said the same thing, when he had looked at it. 'And now, since you have no school, and since I have nothing to do, I might as well take a walk through the woods and see if we can find an adventure,' suggested the 'Bunny rabbit gentleman.'"

"Oh, that will be fun!" barked Jackie, making believe to turn a somersault. He was as pleased as a piece of strawberry shortcake, and nothing is more pleasing than that. So Uncle Wiggly and the little puppy dog went off. Jackie's new collar around his neck started off.

"Don't go too far, and look out for the Pipsissewah and the Skeezicks!" called Nurse Jane after them.

"We will!" promised Uncle Wiggly.

As he went Jackie saw the sun shine on the brass plate of the puppy dog's collar until it glittered like diamonds. But still Jackie was not proud.

"Has Pectie a new collar, also?" asked Uncle Wiggly.

"Not yet. Mother is going to get him one tomorrow, I guess," answered Jackie.

So he and the bunny rabbit gentleman walked on and on through the woods together until all of a sudden they heard a voice calling: "Help! Help! Help!"

"I wonder who that is?" asked Jackie, sort of scratching his back against the rough bark of a sassafras tree.

"I don't know," answered Uncle Wiggly. "I only hope it isn't the Pipsissewah or the Skeezicks." Again the voice sounded: "Help! Help! Help!"

"And it was faint and far away. Just as sometimes you hear the furnace man calling up from the cellar to know whether the shaft put more coal in the laundry wash tubs."

"Who are you and what's the matter?" asked Uncle Wiggly, looking around but seeing no one.

"They looked at me until I was the answer. 'Oh, please help me out.' 'Help you out of what?' asked Uncle Wiggly, looking around some more, but still seeing no one. 'I don't know anybody named Ding Dong Bell!'

"Oh, yes you do," was the answer of the faint, far-away voice. "I'm Ding Dong Bell Puss, and I'm in the well."

"Who put her in? Little Johnnie Green. Who pulled her out? Big Bennis Stout!" barked Jackie. "Now I know who she is. Uncle Wiggly, she's the little mouse named Ding Dong Bell Puss in the Well!"

"Of course!" exclaimed the bunny. "I might have known. Now we must find the well, Jackie. You found the well. And there, down at the bottom was poor Ding Dong Bell Puss."

"Oh, please get me out!" she pleaded.

"I will," promised Uncle Wiggly. He tried to reach down and get Puss out, but his paws were not long enough. Then Jackie saw, hanging his tail down in the well, thinking Puss could get hold of that, even if her claws would scratch a bit. But Jackie's tail was too short.

"We must get a pole and reach that down to her," said Uncle Wiggly. But the pole was too short, and it looked as if Puss would have to stay in the well a long time.

"If only I had something like a rope or a string to tie on the end of the pole it would reach Puss," sadly said Uncle Wiggly. The sun shone on the silver buckle and the golden nameplate of Jackie's collar. "Here! Take it!" said the little puppy dog boy. "I don't care if it gets all wet and scratched. Save Puss!"

"Uncle Wiggly fastened the collar from Jackie's neck. He buckled the collar, which was quite long, on the pole, and then when Puss stuck her claws in the leather she was pulled from the well.

"Oh, thank you both!" she pleaded. Jackie's collar was scratched and the silver buckle and the brass nameplate did not shine so brightly after they had been wet. But Jackie said: "I don't care. My collar saved Puss." (I told you he wasn't proud, didn't I?)

GUIDED TO CALL BY HIS 'DOCTOR'

CHICAGO, Dec. 2.—If Linus Wolf deputy sheriff of Cook county, stood on his tiptoes he would be 5 feet 6 inches in height, but when it comes to cool nerve he is a 6-footer. Saturday afternoon, having heard that an escaped convict was at the Lawler farm near Chicago Heights, he went to the farm and was informed by Joe Kahler, superintendent of the place, that the man, who gave the name of Fern Cole, was upstairs asleep.

Wolf, assuming a professional gravity, looked the man over, felt his pulse and informed him that he was a doctor, who had been summoned to the wife of one of the tenant farmers. He gravely informed the man that he was suffering from appendicitis and said that it would be necessary to take him to the Chicago Heights hospital, and volunteered to call the police ambulance, but Cole demurred, asking to be taken in Wolf's automobile. Wolf mixed a portion of sugar and water and administered it to his patient before leaving.

He then piloted his car to the police station and Cole made a last desperate effort to escape, but was frustrated by Wolf, with the assistance of a farmer named Tehoda and Police Chief Stone of Chicago Heights.

After he had been locked in a cell Cole admitted that he had escaped from Joliet penitentiary about five months ago, taking with him the warden's automobile and revolver. He smashed the car on his way to Chicago Heights and completed the journey to the town by rail.

He applied for work on the Lawlor farm, saying he had been recently discharged from the army. He succeeded in avoiding suspicion until he had forced Mrs. Tehoda to take him in her car to Joliet to visit his wife.

Cole's right name is said to be Frank Bigdon. He has fourteen years more of his sentence to serve, according to Wolf.

Investigation by authorities has shown that Cole has $2000 in a Louisville, Ky., bank. Sheriff Peters' office is working on the theory the money is a share from a bank robbery.

S. P. Sheds Collapse During Big Storm

VACAVILLE, Dec. 2.—Vacaville, in common with the rest of this section of the state, was visited by a severe gale Wednesday night and Thursday, accompanied by a freezing temperature. Considerable damage was done by the wind, and perhaps the full amount will not be realized until a closer investigation is made in some cases.

The greatest loss in this vicinity will fall upon the Southern Pacific, in the collapse of their loading sheds, where the fruit is handled, which went down some time Wednesday night.

Other serious losses were sustained by the First National Bank, the tin roof of its building being torn off, and C. C. Crystal, whose building, occupied by K. Schaefer, E. Reese and S. P. Dobbins, suffered the same loss. A Corbett was having a new galvanized iron roof put on his building, which he occupies as a pool room, and it was torn off and blown into the street. Awnings were damaged in a number of cases, and several windows broken. The spire of the Catholic Church is out of plumb, and the Christian Church also had plaster knocked off by the movement of the steeple, and some

Willard School Club Of Mothers Meets

BERKELEY, Dec. 2.—The regular monthly meeting of the Willard School Club of Mothers met at the home of Mrs. A. Corbett, 1000 Broadway, Wednesday evening. The club is composed of mothers of the children of the Willard School, and its purpose is to help the school in its work.

In numerous instances barns and sheds have been blown down or unroofed, and many trees have been uprooted or their branches broken. A number of automobiles passed through town with their tops blown off, most of such mishaps occurring on the causeway just the other side of Davis.

School Mothers' club will be held tomorrow afternoon at the school at Telegraph avenue and Ward street. After a social half hour, which refreshments will be served, the business session will be held. A program consisting of a musical skit by members of the school band, fancy dancing by Misses Anita Ayala and Consuela Taylor, schoolgirls, and readings by Mrs. R. W. Hastings is to follow. Gustavus Schneider of the playground department, will address the club members on a playground project for the school and Mrs. Fred G. Atherton, club chairman, will also speak.

OAKLAND HAS TWO MONTHS' COAL SUPPLY

There will be little local application of war-time restriction on coal consumption ordered by the fuel administration for other parts of the United States to avert a fuel famine, in the opinion of J. R. Myles, state secretary of the Fuel Dealers' association.

"Alameda county's coal supply would last about two months even were no more brought in. With what we have on hand, it would last about two months. In any case, ordinary household conservation will carry us past the winter season," he said today.

It is also pointed out that restrictions covering conservation of electric power do not apply locally as production of electric power here is from water power and does not affect coal consumption.

Regulations governing the distribution of coal throughout the bay region, California, Nevada and Arizona, were formulated today at a meeting of the district and commission of the national fuel administration for the announced purpose of meeting the coal shortage problem brought about by strike conditions in the West.

According to Albert Schwabacher, regional director of the national fuel administration, both consumers and dealers are to be limited to thirty days' supply at one time and dealers receiving shipments of the fuel are obligated to unload at once, the period of unloading time being designated as from "sunrise to sundown."

Schwabacher said the regulations were formulated on the Lever act which governs the distribution and consumption of coal under wartime conditions.

Fremont H. S. Alumni Will Plan Reunion

Alumni of the John C. Fremont High School, Forty-sixth avenue and Rockhill boulevard, will meet at the school Friday evening for their semi-annual gathering. This year the students of the dramatic workshop, under E. W. Jacobsen, will offer a program of two one-act plays.

The semi-annual business meeting of the alumni association is to be held, according to announcements issued by Raymond Nichols, president, and Evelyn Prosser, secretary, of the organization. A dance in the school gymnasium is to close the evening.

Plans for a reunion will also be formulated. It is planned to hold an alumni day on January 21, when the school reopens for the spring semester.

Maltby Will Give Property to Widow

MARTINEZ, Dec. 2.—A petition for letters of administration with the will annexed of the estate of the late Adolphus W. Maltby, capitalist of Concord, who died at his home several days ago, was filed in the probate court here yesterday by Eleanor Maltby, widow of the deceased. The will was executed in 1913 and bequeaths the entire estate to the widow.

The children named in the petition for letters of administration were: Katherine, Eleanor, Elizabeth, Randolph, Caroline, Drusilla and Phoebe Maltby and Mrs. Dorinda Sullivan.

Maltby's estate is generally reputed to be around $1,000,000.

Court Battle Looms Over School Board's Demands That County Return Funds

Alameda county and the Oakland board of education will be arrayed in a court battle, already flashing premonitory butterness, if the board persists in its demand for payment of $50,000 from the county, today asserted Theodore Witschen, chief assistant district attorney.

He also replied to the assertion of Commissioner of Streets William J. Baccus that the county was withholding road money from the city by declaring that "the city has almost no claim to that money. The supervisors can spend it as they desire."

"With the holiday season coming on, the city of Oakland seems to be in a very tight financial strait. It would not be surprising if it were in any case, ordinary household conservation will carry us past the winter season," he said today.

It is also pointed out that restrictions covering conservation of electric power do not apply locally as production of electric power here is from water power and does not affect coal consumption.

any district lost it should be reimbursed by the county.

"Alameda county actually gained through the operation of this law. The only counties reimbursed were two or three little counties in far-off parts of the state. Of course, that was long before my time in office, but before this administration, but I understand that it was generally supposed that the Oakland district gained through the new law. It now claims that it has lost $50,000."

SITUATION IS COMPLICATED.

Presently, for the sake of argument, that they are right. Oakland pays 60 per cent of the general taxes collected by the county. Therefore, of the $50,000 it claims, $30,000 would have to come from Oakland, and the remaining $20,000 from other parts of the county. But there are other school boards to consider their claims and when it was all over, it is extremely doubtful whether the Oakland district would be the net gainer at all, and in any event it would be a long haul.

There are manifest inequalities. Oakland, with a tax of 86 cents for schools, would have a bigger claim than Berkeley, with its tax of 88 cents. Before anything could be paid, the law would have to be threshed out in court."

E. F. Garrison, auditor, said that he has not been aware any money has been withheld from the Oakland school district and declared that if he had known such to be the case he would have advised the board of education.

DIFFERENCE IN FIGURES.

President Gray of the board declared at last night's meeting that when the investigation was first made, the figures furnished by the auditor showed $15,000,000 worth of operative properties in the county, while the correct figures shown in a check made at Gray's direction was $16,000,000.

He said he would speed up action so that the claim of the last fiscal year would not be outlaid.

Witschen declared that he struck him as peculiar that the school board should not put in its claim until after the budget allowances for the year had been made.

With regard to Baccus' charges regarding the road money, Witschen said that the supervisors were given entire control of this fund, derived from Automobile taxation, that they might spend it within the city, or they might connect it with county roads, if they desired, but the disposal is entirely within their option.

WITSCHEN EXPLAINS LAW.

The board of education last night voted to request of the county auditor a statement of the total assessed value of all operative properties withdrawn from the Oakland school district for State taxation for the fiscal year.

President Gray of the board announced that a demand for reimbursement of the tax money would be made on the board of supervisors in a few days.

Witschen explained that the demand from the board of education after nine years.

"In 1911, for the first time, state and county taxes were separated," he said. "Until that time, money had been taken from county funds to pay state expenses. In that year, however, corporation taxes were divided into those on operative and non-operative properties. Taxes on operative properties went to pay the state expenses. The county got the tax on non-operative properties. It was provided that if any county lost, through this arrangement, it should be reimbursed by the state and if

"In that case," said Judge Ward, "the case will be continued until December 17 and if the district attorney's office is not prepared then to go to trial, the charges against the defendant will be dismissed."

Judge Ward said he wished to have all of the defendants charged against the board of education insofar as he was concerned, disposed of in either one way or another.

He said on October 18 he invoked the writ of habeas corpus against the board of education, which was then under which the prosecution is obliged to bring the case to trial within sixty days. This period expires on December 17.

Adams May Accept Council Position.

ALAMEDA, Dec. 2.—Notwithstanding his previous announcement that he would, under no consideration, accept a position on the council if tendered, President C. C. Adams of the Chamber of Commerce said today that he had been inclined to change his mind, presuming that the present council members and other city officials, and that if the board was to be re-elected, he would take it. Adams' change of decision resulted from special representations made to him within the last day or two.

Councilman Greene Majors, following his announcement last week, filed this morning with City Clerk F. B. Bosshard his formal resignation from the council. The council meets tonight and from present indications Adams will be named at tonight's meeting.

Councilman Majors' letter of resignation contains thanks to the voters of Alameda, who practically elected him as mayor of Alameda when he was voted in, and declared that he would like to practice and private affairs, beckon him from public life.

Majors is a strong exponent of non-partisan politics and a federal ownership of public utilities.

Beats Up Furniture; Wife Gets Divorce.

MARRIED twenty-two years ago in the island of Ival, Azores Islands, Mrs. Clara Rigo was granted a divorce today from Antonio J. Rigo by Judge P. J. Brown. Mrs. Rigo testified that her husband threatened her with a knife and fork, striking the table in front of her and leaving a deep impression in the table. At another time, she charged, he ordered her from home and endeavored to strike her, but their son, Joseph Rigo, interposed and declared the father would have to go first.

Mrs. Rigo was granted the custody of two minor children and $15 a month for their maintenance.

Reward Out For Men Who Burned Church.

VALLEJO, Dec. 2.—The city council yesterday offered a reward of $250 for information that would lead to the apprehension and arrest of the party or parties who are alleged to have set fire to the colored church at Illinois and Sonoma streets last Friday night.

AUTO STRIKES BOB AND GIRL; SPEEDS AWAY

SAN JOSE, Dec. 2.—The sheriff's office is attempting today to discover the identity of an autoist who fled without offering assistance after running down and seriously injuring William Rung, 304 Delema avenue, and Miss Smith of Lurecia avenue, while they were walking along the Story road south of San Jose last night.

The young man was escorting the young woman home and they claim that they were walking considerably to the side of the road when struck. Rung suffered a broken shoulder and Miss Smith was bruised and lacerated and is also suffering from the shock.

The autoist sped away hurriedly after the accident and the injured couple were brought to a hospital here by another autoist who happened to be passing at the time.

CONTINUANCE IS GIVEN MRS. KING.

Intimations from the Berkeley police that Mrs. Hazel Vallejo King would be arrested on another one of the old check charges if she was granted probation by Judge James S. Quinn, resulted today in the matter being continued for two weeks on motion of her attorney, Edward J. Silver.

Mrs. King charged persecution by the Berkeley police. It is understood that Leonard Compton, adult probation officer, was ready to recommend probation for Mrs. King on the ground that she had a two-year-old child.

At the time Mrs. King was arrested on an insanity warrant sworn to by Detective Sergeant A. R. McHertens of Berkeley, she was acquitted by the insanity board and then tried on the charge of passing a fictitious check for $5.25 on Owen Boe, art dealer. It is also understood that the San Francisco police have also threatened to arrest Mrs. King on a similar charge if probation is granted.

One of the eve of his marriage to another girl, so county authorities were informed, Henry Cambra, former soldier, was ordered to appear at the district attorney's office this afternoon to face 15-year-old Marie Freitas, who swallowed poison at Hayward Sunday because, she alleged, her lover had forsaken her.

The girl has recovered sufficiently from the effects of her draught to talk over the case with Cambra and Assistant District Attorney Ralph E. B. and Marie Stone today, who were proved to be as first she told.

Deputy Sheriff Joseph Soares, to whom the girl first sobbed out her version of her broken romance, said he was informed Cambra intended to wed tomorrow Elizabeth Roderick, daughter of Anterior Roderick of Hayward.

It was Saturday that Miss Freitas appeared at the sheriff's office. Soares advised her to see the district attorney. Today after leaving the district attorney's office, Soares was assured that Cambra would be summoned to answer her charge, the girl attempted suicide at the home of her father, Joe Freitas, on Oakland boulevard, in Hayward.

At the district attorney's office, it was said that Cambra first had been ordered to appear tomorrow, but that he said he would be busy then. Soares said he had no doubt, he said, as they had heard about his contemplated marriage, so the time was fixed for this afternoon instead.

Fur Farm Hearing Set For Dec. 9.

Shares of stock "as good as liberty bonds," the promise of great profits through the sale of rabbit fur at $5 per yard and profits from the rabbit fur, was the theme of the Fur Farmer, consisted of the bait that Lester Edgar Searly laid out to unsuspecting working women to invest in his rabbit fur scheme, according to the testimony of Mrs. Elsie M. Henning of 1431 Second avenue.

Mrs. Henning, who testified she invested $700 in the California Cooperative Fur Company, testified as the state's star witness this morning at the examination of Searly in Police Judge George Samuels' court.

Last October, the Fur Farmer, a publication and the Actors' Voice, both published at Los Angeles. Complaints then began to pour into the office of Captain of Detectives Walter J. Petersen. Searly was taken into custody in the southern city on a warrant. The case was continued to December 9 for further examination.

Fail To Identify Coffey As Shooter.

Witnesses to the shooting of Charles Lucas, who was struck in the heel by a bullet during the car strike, were unable to identify Coffey as the man who fired the rifle.

Coffey was examined in Police Judge Smith's court on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon. The witnesses who failed to identify Coffey were two members of the boiler-makers' union and cleaners and dyers' union.

One of the strikebreakers fired a shot from an armored tractor on East Thirteenth street, near Webster. Lucas was felled by the bullet, which, at the time, was said to be a soft-nosed lead, but was not seriously injured.

Directors of Civic Center Face Impeachment Because of Anita Whitney Meeting

A special meeting of the members of Oakland center, California Civic League has been called for Friday afternoon to face the issue which has been made to demand a recall of the members of the board of directors and the further possible demand for the resignation of those who on Friday last, at a business session, voted in favor of listening to Miss Charlotte Anita Whitney, now under arrest charged with criminal syndicalism, speak from the open forum. The action is the answer of the board of directors and members representing both sides to the proposed recall. The special session advances the December monthly calendar appearing this morning made no provision for any charge of disloyalty to the ideals of the American clubwomen or the principles of our government," said Mrs. Frank G. Law this morning.

In explaining the vote which was taken last Friday by the members precipitating an internal warfare among the membership of the largest organized group of women in the city, Mrs. Law declared that those in favor of hearing Miss Whitney speak last week did not wish it to be understood as an endorsement of any alleged radical doctrine, but merely a statement of the right of free speech and the demand that no one must be held guilty until charges against them are proven.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

Efforts will be directed toward the unseating of the board of directors of Oakland center, according to leaders of the faction within the body which opposed the appearance of Miss Charlotte Anita Whitney, now under arrest charged with criminal syndicalism, on the platform last week. In addition to the unseating of the board which includes, beside its president, Mrs. Frank G. Law, Mrs. A. F. Coffin, Mrs. B. C. Eddy, Mrs. C. F. Williams, Mrs. C. E. Vance, Mrs. A. E. Thurston, Miss Clara Correll, Mrs. May E. B. and Mrs. C. E. Vance, through a firm of San Francisco attorneys, the board of directors is expected to form the district in view of the fact that the greater portion of the city lies within the city limits of Oakland.

The land included in the proposed district comprises 1340 acres. The petition was referred to City Attorney H. L. Hagan for a legal report before the setting of a date for the hearing before the Board of Supervisors.

In order to provide greater safety for automobilists traveling between the city and Contra Costa county, the city council this morning passed a resolution directing the superintendent of streets to place traffic signs on the Tunnel road and at the entrance to the intra-county tunnel prohibiting a speed of more than five miles an hour.

An appropriation of $1000 was made by the council today for the expenses of the commission appointed to investigate a water supply for the Eastbay cities in joint action with Alameda, Berkeley and Richmond.

The sum of $5000 was provided for in the budget, and this morning's appropriation draws a total to date of $7000 from the fund.

It is understood that the charges which will be made against the directors will set forth among other alleged causes, disloyalty by the board of the civic center to the ideals of American womanhood; humiliation occasioned by club members through publicity attendant upon Miss Whitney's arrest; unwillingness of the directors to heed official warnings from agencies known to be engaged in exterminating radicalism; open defense of Miss Whitney before declared enemies of her connection with the Communist Labor Party.

LEADERS IN THE RECALL MOVEMENT have declared that they will communicate with every loyal member of Oakland center and place before them the issue of Miss Whitney's active in the agency which is directing the fight against the directors. Mysterious telephone calls to one member of the center has occasioned considerable nervousness upon the part of those who were present when Miss Whitney addressed the organization last week. Rumors that a movement is contemplated to oust the center women who voted in favor of continuing the program on which Miss Whitney's name appeared are not confirmed.

A meeting of the directors of Oakland center is called for Monday of next week. Whether the officers will take any official action to meet the issue is not announced. Several of the directors have indicated their willingness to resign. They demand that those who have charged them with disloyalty and un-Americanism prove it.

EXPECT CROWDED COURT.

Feminine court are being gathered to witness the arraignment of Miss Whitney in Judge Samuels' courtroom tomorrow morning. It is understood those who have opposed her appearing before Oakland center will fill the courtroom. In connection with the Whitney case, THE TRIBUNE

To get to this new district, go out Moraga Road from Piedmont or out Park Boulevard to Moraga Road, or take Oakland & Antioch and get off at Thornhill Station.

Local Business Men Off On "Friendship Trip" to The Upper Bay Counties

Crowded into several big automobiles, a large group of local business men left the offices of the Chamber of Commerce this morning on a "friendship trip," which will take them into the upper bay counties. The first stop on the itinerary was Vallejo, which was scheduled to be reached at 10:15 o'clock.

After a half hour's rest the party was to proceed to Napa, where the three hours from 11:30 to 2:30 were to be spent in further extending acquaintance. Most of the time was to be devoted to a luncheon gathering.

The afternoon's program included a visit to the petrified forest and a stop at Calistoga for an hour between 3:30 and 4:30 o'clock. Santa Rosa is the destination for today's trip, with a dinner at the hotel and a night's rest before tackling the rest of the trip.

Some of those in the party were: William F. Bailey, John Block, A. R. Brandes, E. E. Crawford, Frank M. Davidson, Foo Dee, Theodore Gier, W. M. Gori, K. L. Hamman, George Harris, L. W. Jackson, R. L. Kennedy, O. A. Kenyon, F. W. Lauffer, J. R. Munsel, Fred Reed.

SEN. POINDEXTER CHALLENGES WOOD

PIERRE, S. D., Dec. 2.—United States Senator Miles Poinexter of Washington delivered a short address at a mass meeting late yesterday as a candidate for the Republican Presidential nomination, and challenged Major General Leonard Wood to either debate with him on national issues or to answer a series of prepared questions which Poinexter read to his audience.

Senator Poinexter gave to the press an official copy of his speech at the mass meeting. The text reads in part follows:

I have a big regard for General Wood personally. I know that he was a friend of Roosevelt, but there are many friends of Roosevelt whose positions on the paramount problems of government I do not know.

DEBATE COMPULSORY.
The law of South Dakota makes it compulsory for the candidates to submit to General Wood these questions:

Did you approve or support the great principles of government for which Roosevelt stood?

Did you vote for his election, or advocate his policies, either privately or publicly?

What is your policy as to fulfilling the international obligations and protecting the lawful rights of American citizens in Mexico?

Are you in favor of an immediate declaration of peace with Germany, and of at once repealing the war legislation and restoring the American government to a peace basis?

STAND REGARDING LEAGUE.
Are you for or against the American union with Europe under the movement of a league of nations?

Do you favor the continuance of war taxes and, if not, what system, would you substitute for them?

What means do you propose, if any, for protecting essential industries, such as coal mining and transportation, from Bolsheviki interferences?

SAN QUENTIN, CAL., Dec. 2.—When Antonio Lapara hangs December 19 his interstitial glands will not be transferred to one of the inmates of the prison here. It was learned today that his relatives have demanded that his body be delivered to them intact. This request will be granted, the prison physicians said.

The sum of $10,000 has been offered for Lapara's glands, but the physicians announced they could only be used within the prison walls for experimental purposes. The plan was to use them to rejuvenate an aged prisoner.

Hair and Scalp Ailment Solved By Science

A Hair Specialist Is of as Much Importance as Your Doctor or Dentist!

—Prof. John H. Austin, well-known bacteriologist, hair and scalp specialist of Chicago, says that it is useless to try to cure dandruff, falling hair, oily hair, baldness, or any other hair or scalp troubles with the ordinary dandruff cures, mange cures, hair tonics or vaseline—in fact, it is just like taking medicine without knowing what you are trying to cure.

—When you stop to think that there are over sixty conditions of the hair and scalp that all require different treatment, different remedies, it is easily understood that only a specialist can advise what to do.

—The roots of the hair must be examined with a powerful microscope—the exact cause of each particular trouble must be determined—before the case can be intelligently treated.

—Prof. Austin has had 40 years' experience in conditions of the hair and scalp. During this time thousands of people have found relief from their hair and scalp troubles, in many instances new hair has been grown on bald patches, and baldness arrested. You can easily see the advantage of following the Prof. Austin method, now being demonstrated at The Owl Drug Store, Fourteenth and Washington.

COUNCIL SCORED FOR WAGE BLOCK

At a meeting at 5 o'clock today members of the Municipal Civil Service Employees' Association, through their executive committee, attempted to dissuade members of the city council from their stand in opposition to salary increases recommended a week ago by the civil service board, covering a large number of city employees.

The conference was granted by the council yesterday on the request of a communication from John W. McNeely, secretary of the organization of employees, asking that the commissioners get together with the executive committee of the body for a discussion of the salary question. The meeting was held in the office of Commissioner of Public Health and Safety F. Morse.

The request for a conference followed a meeting of the executive committee of the Civil Service Employees' Association, held Saturday afternoon, following indignation expressed by city employees and members of the association over the council's attitude in blocking ordinances introduced by Commissioner of Streets William J. Baucus, providing for the suggested increases in his department.

Members of the council majority, including Commissioner F. P. Morse, Commissioner Frederick Soderberg, and Commissioner W. H. Edwards, condemn the action of the civil service board in making the recommendations for sweeping salary increases at this time, and the charge has been made that the move was directed by political motives.

INSURANCE FOLK NOT LIABLE FOR HOLIDAY FIRES

In a statement issued today, the Board of Fire Underwriters of the Pacific points out to the public that under the standard form of California fire insurance policy, insurance companies are not liable for fire starting in Christmas greens, or other Christmas decorations, "such as cotton to represent snow."

A clause is referred to whereby in the majority of insurance policies it is stipulated that the company is not liable where "the fire hazard is materially increased by any means within the control of the insured."

The public is insured to use only fireproof decorations for Christmas trees and points out that these may be purchased in practically all stores handling these goods.

Students of Piedmont Avenue Visit Courts

Twenty students of the Piedmont avenue school, in charge of Mrs. A. H. Webster, their teacher, visited the county courthouse today, looking in on the proceedings in Judge St. Sure's, Judge Harris', Judge Brown's and Judge Robinson's departments. Judge Brown made a short address to them, in which he said that good government required three essentials—good laws, good officers to enforce them and good citizens—the last named, he said, being the most important of the three. He told the students that fairness in play, honesty and diligence in their studies and rectitude in their relations with each other would make of them the kind of citizens the nation needs.

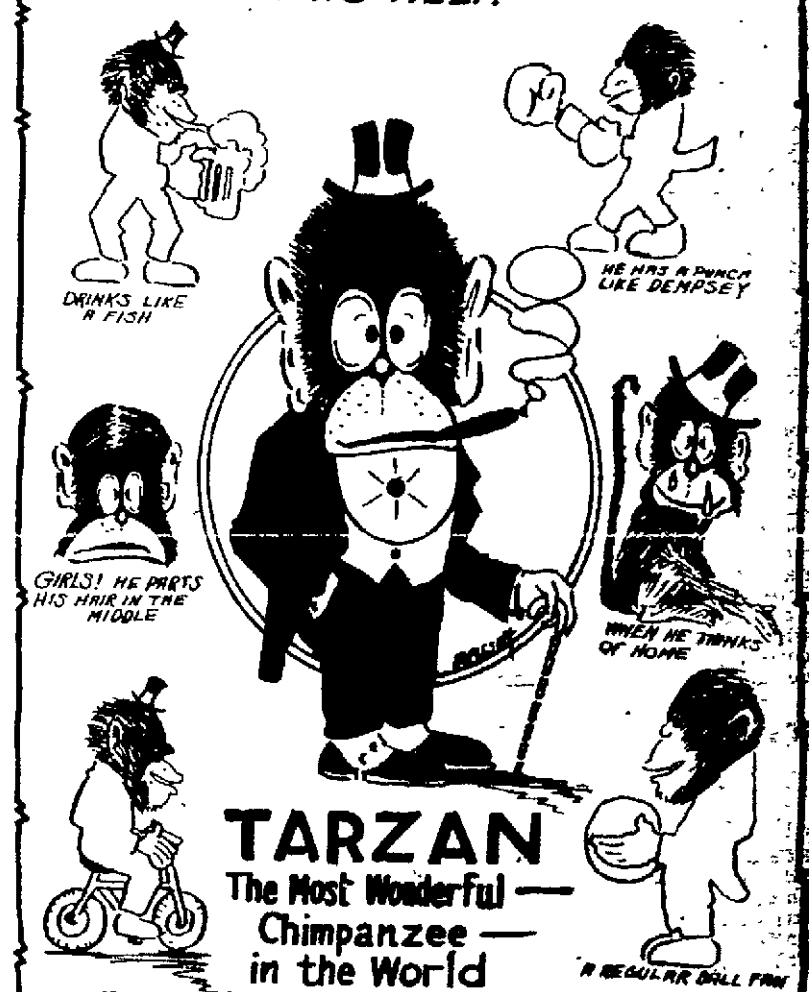

Accused of Failure to Support Family

Oral J. Griffin was arrested on charge of failure to provide for his wife and minor child while talking on the telephone about his case to Inspector James P. Drew. The arrest was made by citizen Reginald P. Johannessen.

The warrant was issued two weeks ago for Griffin, and a day or two after its issuance he called the police on the phone to find out about it. An attempt was made at that time to trace the call, but without success. Last night he phoned again, and while Drew was talking to him, Johannessen traced the call to a public phone at 1220 Broadway.

DRUGGISTS CALL BEGY'S MUSTARINE TRIPLE EXTRACT OF HEAT

But It's Non - Blistering Heat and It Won't Hurt the Tenderest Skin

Grandmother's old-fashioned mustard plaster did the work all right, but it blistered the skin and was a mighty messy remedy.

Begy's Mustarine is the original mustard prescription that has made grandmother mustard plaster but a relic of bygone days.

It's ten times better, cleaner and cannot blister; it is made of true, honest yellow mustard combined with other well-known destroyers of pain and a box does the work of fifty mustard plasters.

Why suffer for days using plasters or continuously rubbing on liniment when one application of Begy's Mustarine will take out soreness in chest or any part of the body and will limber up stiff neck or rusty joints. It banishes backache, toothache, headache in ten minutes—many times in five. If you want to get rid of sore throat, neuralgia, neuritis, tonsillitis, pleurisy or rheumatic agony and swollen joints—rub on Begy's Mustarine right away—it's the quickest pain killer in the world—and the cheapest. Get Begy's Mustarine in the yellow box at any drug store. One box is equal to 30 messy, blistering mustard plasters, and money back if it isn't the quickest pain-killer you ever used. 30 and 60 cents always in the yellow box.

HELP WANTED—FEMALE

PALS ATTEMPT JAIL BREAK TO FREE GIRL

MARTINEZ, Dec. 2.—To prove to her "pal" that she had nerve, Irene Johnson turned bandit, according to her own admission, and held up a Richmond photographer.

Last night the "pal," Bert Garrett, tried to even the score by shooting his way out of the county jail. He was attacked by five jailers and was held by the neck of his shirt. He was then taken to the county jail and held in a cell.

When Williams entered the jail about 6 o'clock with a large lot of groceries, the prisoners had already been taken to the cell block. Williams ducked and was missed. Then J. J. Burton, held for forgery, swung at him with a chain. Williams escaped. At that time, Johnson was on his feet and had the six covered. Garrett made a last bold attempt to get the keys to the upper floor, where the Johnson girl was, but did not succeed.

The plans of the six were carefully laid. The groceries they had ordered were to serve them while they were in flight. They had packed their bedding to take with them. While the jailer was shopping for them they had tried the pipe from a sink and with it had forced loose the door of the cell.

William A. Hawley, Owen Hawley and Charles Smith, charged with auto theft, and Dewey Sansone, a negro of Pinole, charged with burglary, aided in the attack on the jail.

From her cell on the upper floor the Johnson girl frequently sings to Garrett in the cell below, and she has love letters to him almost daily.

On the announcement by Dr. Beth Northington, chairman of the committee on milk investigation for Oakland Housewives' League, that beginning on December 15, the price of milk would be raised to the consumers one cent on a quart, following a wholesale raise of 4 cents on a gallon, in Alameda county, action was taken yesterday at the meeting of the Housewives' League which may result in municipal legislation effecting the present ordinance relating to pasteurization and the bringing of milk directly into the city.

Dr. Northington's committee was instructed to investigate the reasons for the increased cost and to find out whether or not some remedy against the intended raise. It was suggested that a municipal ordinance similar to that in effect in San Francisco which would permit of obtaining milk at the point of production might help solve the problem. It was stated that in a personal interview the milk dealers had declared that the dairyman who was offering milk at 13 cents a quart would go broke. The charge was made that the public was at present "powerless in the grip of a milk trust."

A survey of the egg storage houses in San Francisco is being made by the federal government according to the announcement of Mrs. Annette Adams, United States district attorney. Mrs. Adams suggested for relief in the bread situation a city ordinance which would forbid the sale of bread for other than human consumption under a certain number of days, together with the establishment of centers throughout the city where at reduced costs the "crippled," "deformed" and stale bread might be disposed of. The present increase in the cost of bread and milk are under investigation by the United States district attorney's office in San Francisco, Mrs. Adams admitted.

"Whether or not the term which Mrs. Adams, who was the speaker at the regular meeting of Oakland Housewives' League in the council chambers of the city hall yesterday afternoon, the speaker declared that the cost of getting a loaf of bread from the baker to the consumer is from one and one-half to two cents a loaf. It is too much to pay for distribution. Fancy and infinitesimal packages containing a half pound of food come with expensive pound and a half wrappers. We want food, we do not want fancy ribbons and paper. Yet my agents recite that the reason given for these wrappings is 'Mildew wants it.' We have found that 5000 loaves of bread are wasted each week in San Francisco and are sold at 2 cents a pound for hog food. A good piece of work for the Housewives' League would be to maintain centers where at fair profit the bakers could offer this surplus.

A federation of the Bay Counties Housewives' League, which will serve as a clearing house for the local organizations, will be formed at a meeting called in Berkeley tomorrow afternoon.

Alameda women took the first steps toward the organization of a Housewives' League at a mass meeting which was called this afternoon in the Haight school.

Plans are being made for the adoption of a standard button to be worn by all members of the California Housewives' League.

ALAMEDA PLAYS EIGHT.

ALAMEDA, Dec. 2.—Housewives of Alameda will meet at the Haight school auditorium tomorrow afternoon to form a Housewives' League to combat the high cost of living. The league will be formed along the lines of the Oakland and Berkeley leagues, already in operation. Mrs. Cleveland will speak and Mrs. Mary Larkin Marston will assist in the organization.

NEW ESTUARY BRIDGE WORK TO BE HURRIED

Construction work on the proposed new bridge across the Oakland estuary is expected to be speeded up as a result of the conference yesterday afternoon between a special committee representing the harbor development committee of the Chamber of Commerce and the Alameda county board of supervisors.

It was the consensus of opinion among those who attended the conference that steps should be taken to bring the matter to an issue in view of the return shortly of the railroads to private ownership. Another meeting, at which concrete plans will be outlined, will be held soon.

Although the War Department ordered the bridges either reconstructed or removed by October, 1919, after a hearing held in September, 1918, action was delayed because of the war. The reason given was that the government had need of all the steel available and that the building of the bridge would also consume man-power which could be used to better advantage in more essential lines.

Notwithstanding the efforts of the supervisors and the Chamber of Commerce, J. S. Lovett, then in charge of railroad construction matters under William G. McCadoe, director general of railroads, induced the Secretary of War to grant an indefinite stay of the order for constructing a bridge.

Now it is understood, the Southern Pacific, which has agreed to bear half the expense of a jointly constructed bascule bridge, objects to any further proceeding on the ground that the cost of material has about doubled and that the bridge will cost nearly twice as much as originally estimated.

In the meantime, the plans have been practically completed and it is expected that bids could be called for in thirty days.

AGED MAN IS PULLED FROM BURNING ROOM

With his room a seething mass of flames, R. P. Warrington, age 73, living at 649 Twentieth street, was rescued early today just as the fire reached him where he cowered in a corner, almost unconscious from shock and fright.

Warrington, a Civil war veteran, left an oil stove burning when he went to bed last night. At 2 this morning Mrs. Carrie Williams, in an adjoining room, heard him screaming for help. She called William Averell, another boarder, who broke his way into Warrington's room by wielding a chair. He rushed in, put out the flames with a wet towel and sent Warrington to the emergency hospital, where he was treated for shock.

SCOTTISH RITE TO CONFER DEGREES

Delegates to the ninth annual convention of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Masonry were arriving in town this morning preparatory to the convention which opens this afternoon for a four-day session.

Preparations are being made for the initiation of more than 150 candidates from the interior part of the state to various degrees. Ceremonial degree work for candidates from the fourth to the thirty-second will be held during the four days.

Commander-in-Chief Irving Magnus, Eminent Commander Arthur W. Ziegler and Venerable Master R. W. Littlefield have extended invitations to every member of the organization to meet with coordinate bodies for this occasion.

The convention closes Friday evening with a banquet to all visiting delegates by the local officials.

BED CLOTHING STOLEN.

Detectives are looking for two men who roomed at 2111 Broadway last night, leaving this morning with all the bed clothing. Mrs. G. Truesdale reported the theft. Mrs. Thela Sosinski, 174 Twenty-eighth avenue, reported a sneak thief stole her handbag, containing several dollars, at Twelfth and Washington streets.

Mrs. Ida M. Blochman Is Pneumonia Victim

BERKELEY, Dec. 2.—Mrs. Ida M. Blochman, member of the Berkeley board of education and leader in women's civic activities in the college city, is seriously ill at her home, 2444 Bowditch street, with pneumonia.

Mrs. Blochman was stricken last week with a severe cold which developed into the more serious illness several days ago. A slight improvement was shown in her condition today. She is president of the Berkeley Center of the California Civic League and member of other college city organizations.

Shock From Fall in Bay Kills Man

ALAMEDA, Dec. 2.—John H. Strite, an employee of the San Francisco Bridge Company, lost his life yesterday afternoon when he fell overboard from a dredge of the bridge company at the north end of Mulberry street. He was rescued by fellow workmen and removed to the emergency hospital. City physician Arthur Hieronymus worked for two hours to revive Strite but without avail, submersion and exposure being too great a shock for his system. His body is now at the Alameda branch morgue.

Strite was 67 years of age and lived at 1000 Broadway street. He was a widower and had a family of adult children. Funeral arrangements have not yet been completed.

U. C. Glee Club Names Officers For Year

BERKELEY, Dec. 2.—Officers for the coming year were chosen yesterday by the University of California Glee Club at a meeting held in Stiles Hall. F. A. Morgan, '20 and K. S. Craft, '21, were unanimously re-elected president and manager, respectively. Other officers chosen were: Vice-president, G. B. Barnard, '21; secretary, J. B. Finney, '22; librarian, R. H. Moore, '22; executive committee, R. V. Hunt, '20, and A. R. Parrish, '21.

All dates have been arranged for the San Diego trip during the Christmas vacation, December 23, and January 10 for which negotiations are in progress.

U. C. Will Perpetuate Memory of Prof. Jaen

BERKELEY, Dec. 2.—To perpetuate the memory of the late Professor Ramon Jaen of the department of Spanish of the University of California, and to provide an endowment to stimulate adequate translations of Spanish masterpieces into the English language, El Circulo Hispanico of the State University has announced a "Night in Spain" Thursday evening, at eight o'clock, in Harmon gymnasium.

DEATH HELD ACCIDENTAL.

ALAMEDA, Dec. 2.—An inquest was held yesterday evening at the Alameda branch morgue to inquire into the death of Morris Loupy, who was accidentally killed by the discharge of a shotgun while Loupy and two other boys were hunting on Bay Farm island Sunday. The coroner's jury held that death was due entirely to accident and that no one was to blame for the tragedy.

CAMPUS FORUM IS URGED FOR U. C.

BERKELEY, Dec. 2.—Suggesting a place on the University of California campus where students and faculty could meet and express their opinions of current topics, Professor T. H. Reed today stated that he regarded the return of the custom of holding a "forum" on the campus as highly desirable.

In the past, Hearst Hall, the present woman's gymnasium, was the scene of these discussions, and the auditorium was always crowded with both students and faculty to hear the arguments offered by speakers on both sides of topics of the day. After the talks, it was customary to hear from auditors on the floor of the hall, and thus a general discussion was opened.

At present there is no place on the campus which could be used for the purpose of reviving the custom which ended with the war-time changes; and it is suggested that a hall in the proposed students' union building should be planned for the meeting place of the students to hold "forums."

Steam Pipe Bursts; Gym. Like North Pole

BERKELEY, Dec. 2.—Miniature geysers of boiling water and clouds of live steam blocked the sidewalk leading into the University of California grounds through Sather Gate today.

The pipe line carrying the hot water and steam heat for the college gymnasium from the university power plant burst and the water and steam had little trouble penetrating the old packing around the pipe and gushing out through crevices in the cement walk and street pavement.

Work was begun immediately to lay a new pipe line to replace the old and the gymnasium will soon again be supplied with heat.

SIXTY DAYS FOR TAKING $20.

ALAMEDA, Dec. 2.—George Schmidt, ex-convict, was sentenced today by Police Judge E. P. Weinmann to serve sixty days in the county jail, after Schmidt pleaded guilty to taking a $20 bill from the little daughter of Mrs. W. P. Seebach. Schmidt offered to get the bill changed for the child and when she gave him the bill he disappeared. He was arrested in San Francisco last week.

ELEVEN POLICE RESIGN PLACES WITHIN MONTH

BERKELEY, Dec. 2.—In spite of the recent increase in wages granted to the police department, one-third of Berkeley's policemen have quit the police "game" in a month. The eleven resignations from the police staff of thirty-two were received and accepted today by the city council.

A. E. Eachus, patrolman, is the latest to resign. He told the council that he intends to enter the real estate and insurance business in Berkeley.
